Mrs. MS/Reese—

In all seriousness you've been a lot more than a teacher to me — you've let me off on a light load many times and helped me to keep up and it all is appreciated more than you know! You're the ~~greatest~~ and very few teachers measure up to you — you've got a way with teen-agers and will ALWAYS be the greatest!

The Sequoyah is a tradition of Fair Park. Through the years it has been charged with three purposes: to record graphically the events of one year, to reflect the unchanging principles and traditions which have made Fair Park the pride of its graduates, and to introduce the school to its students and the community.

Because this year marks the thirtieth anniversary of the publishing of the yearbook, the 1963 Sequoyah attempts to show that the publishers' dream has materialized and to salute the students for their contribution to the realization of this dream.

It has portrayed again and again views of the building and surrounding areas any one of which can be quickly recognized as the place we know now. It has shown people over a period of thirty years to have the same ideals and goals. It has recorded the excitement of elections, athletic events, and parties. It is a lasting record of all these things and a cherished possession of thousands of students who have passed through the doors of Fair Park.

I want to say that you are the best English teacher I have ever had. Most or either too full of fun or too strict. However you combine both in very good quantities.
Ricky Holland

Mrs. McNeese, It was a joy to have you as an English teacher, you are the best senior English teacher I know of in Fair Park, and you have more common sense in teaching English, so good luck and best wishes for the future. Edward Chrzanowski '63

Mrs McNeese
I would like to tell you what a great time I've had in your class. Most English classes I've been in were too formal or you didn't learn anything. Your class was easy-going but when you got through a class you'd went out knowing English.

"Remember all the fun we had," has been said of every year and curiously enough, it is said of the same things —assemblies, field trips, and club meetings.

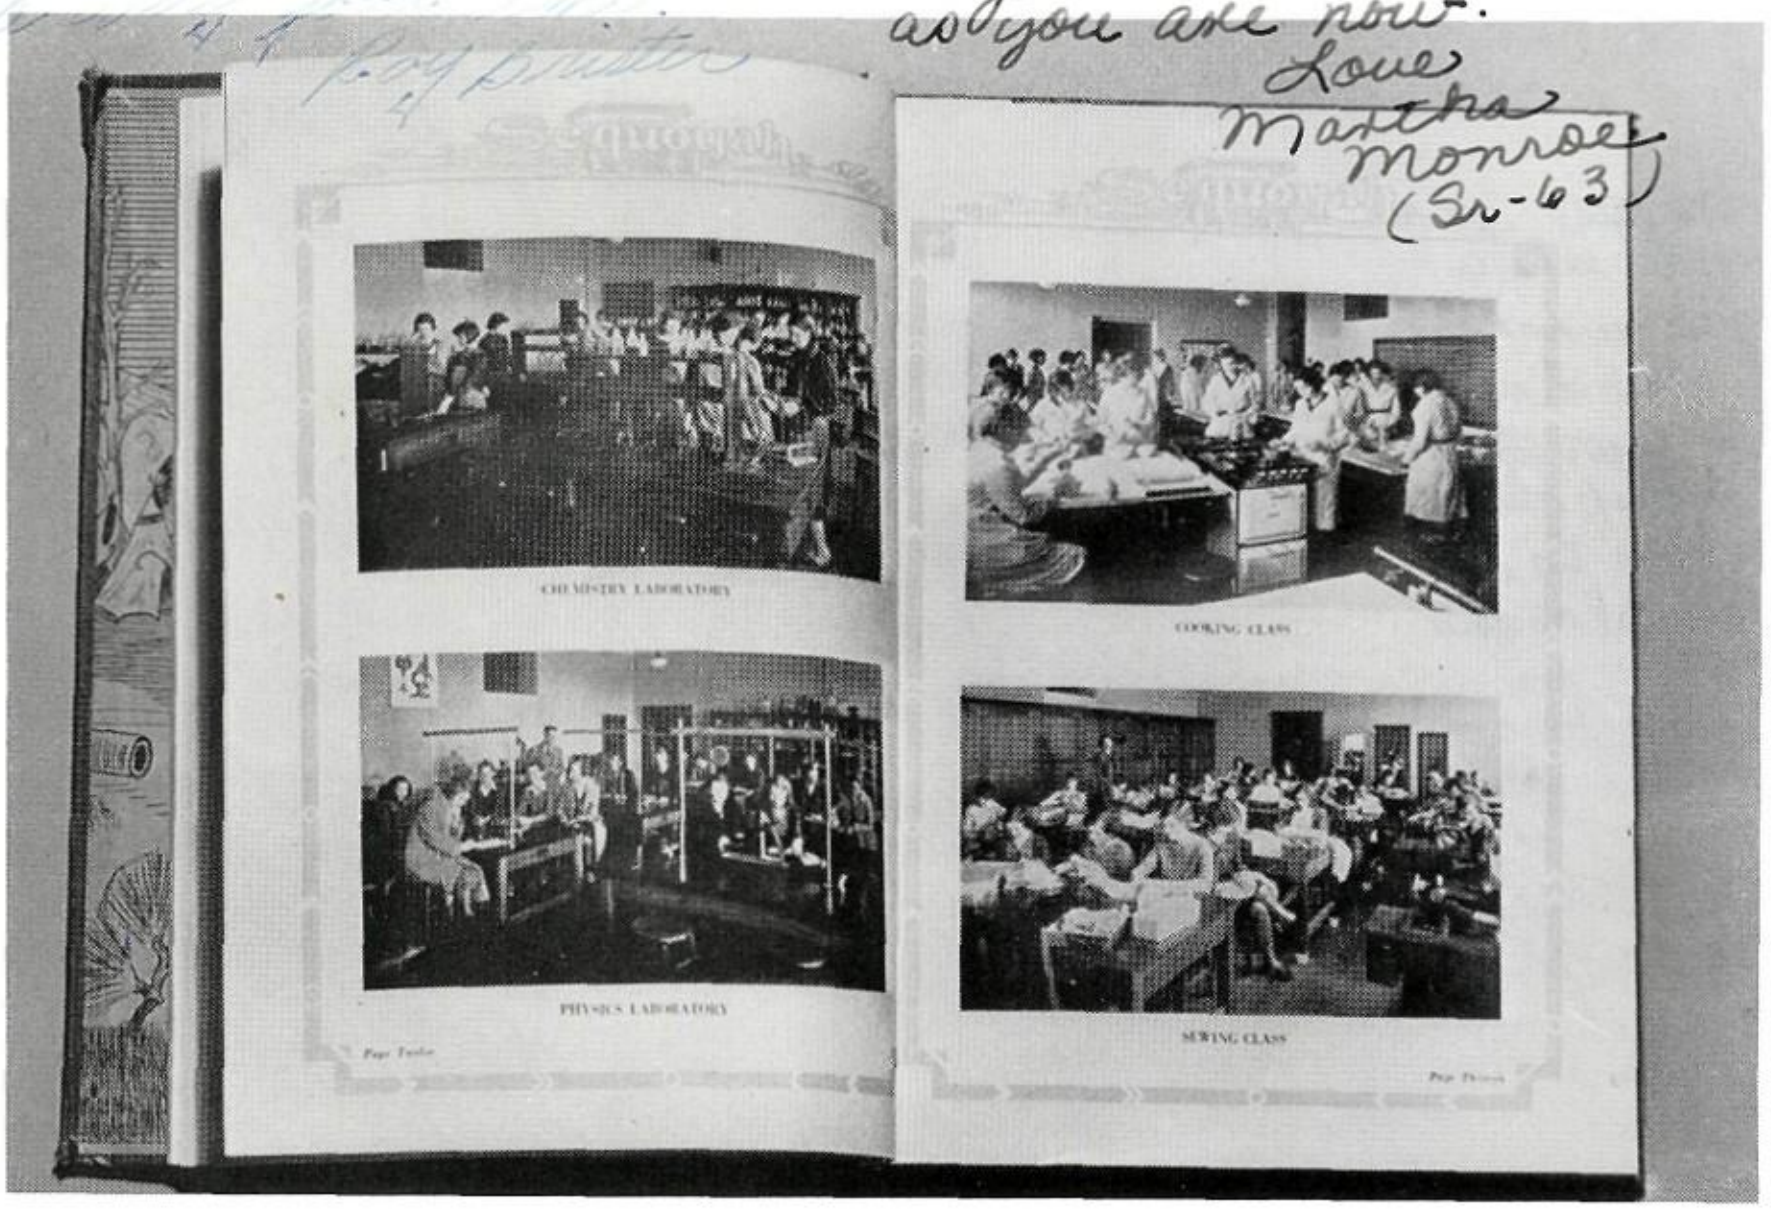
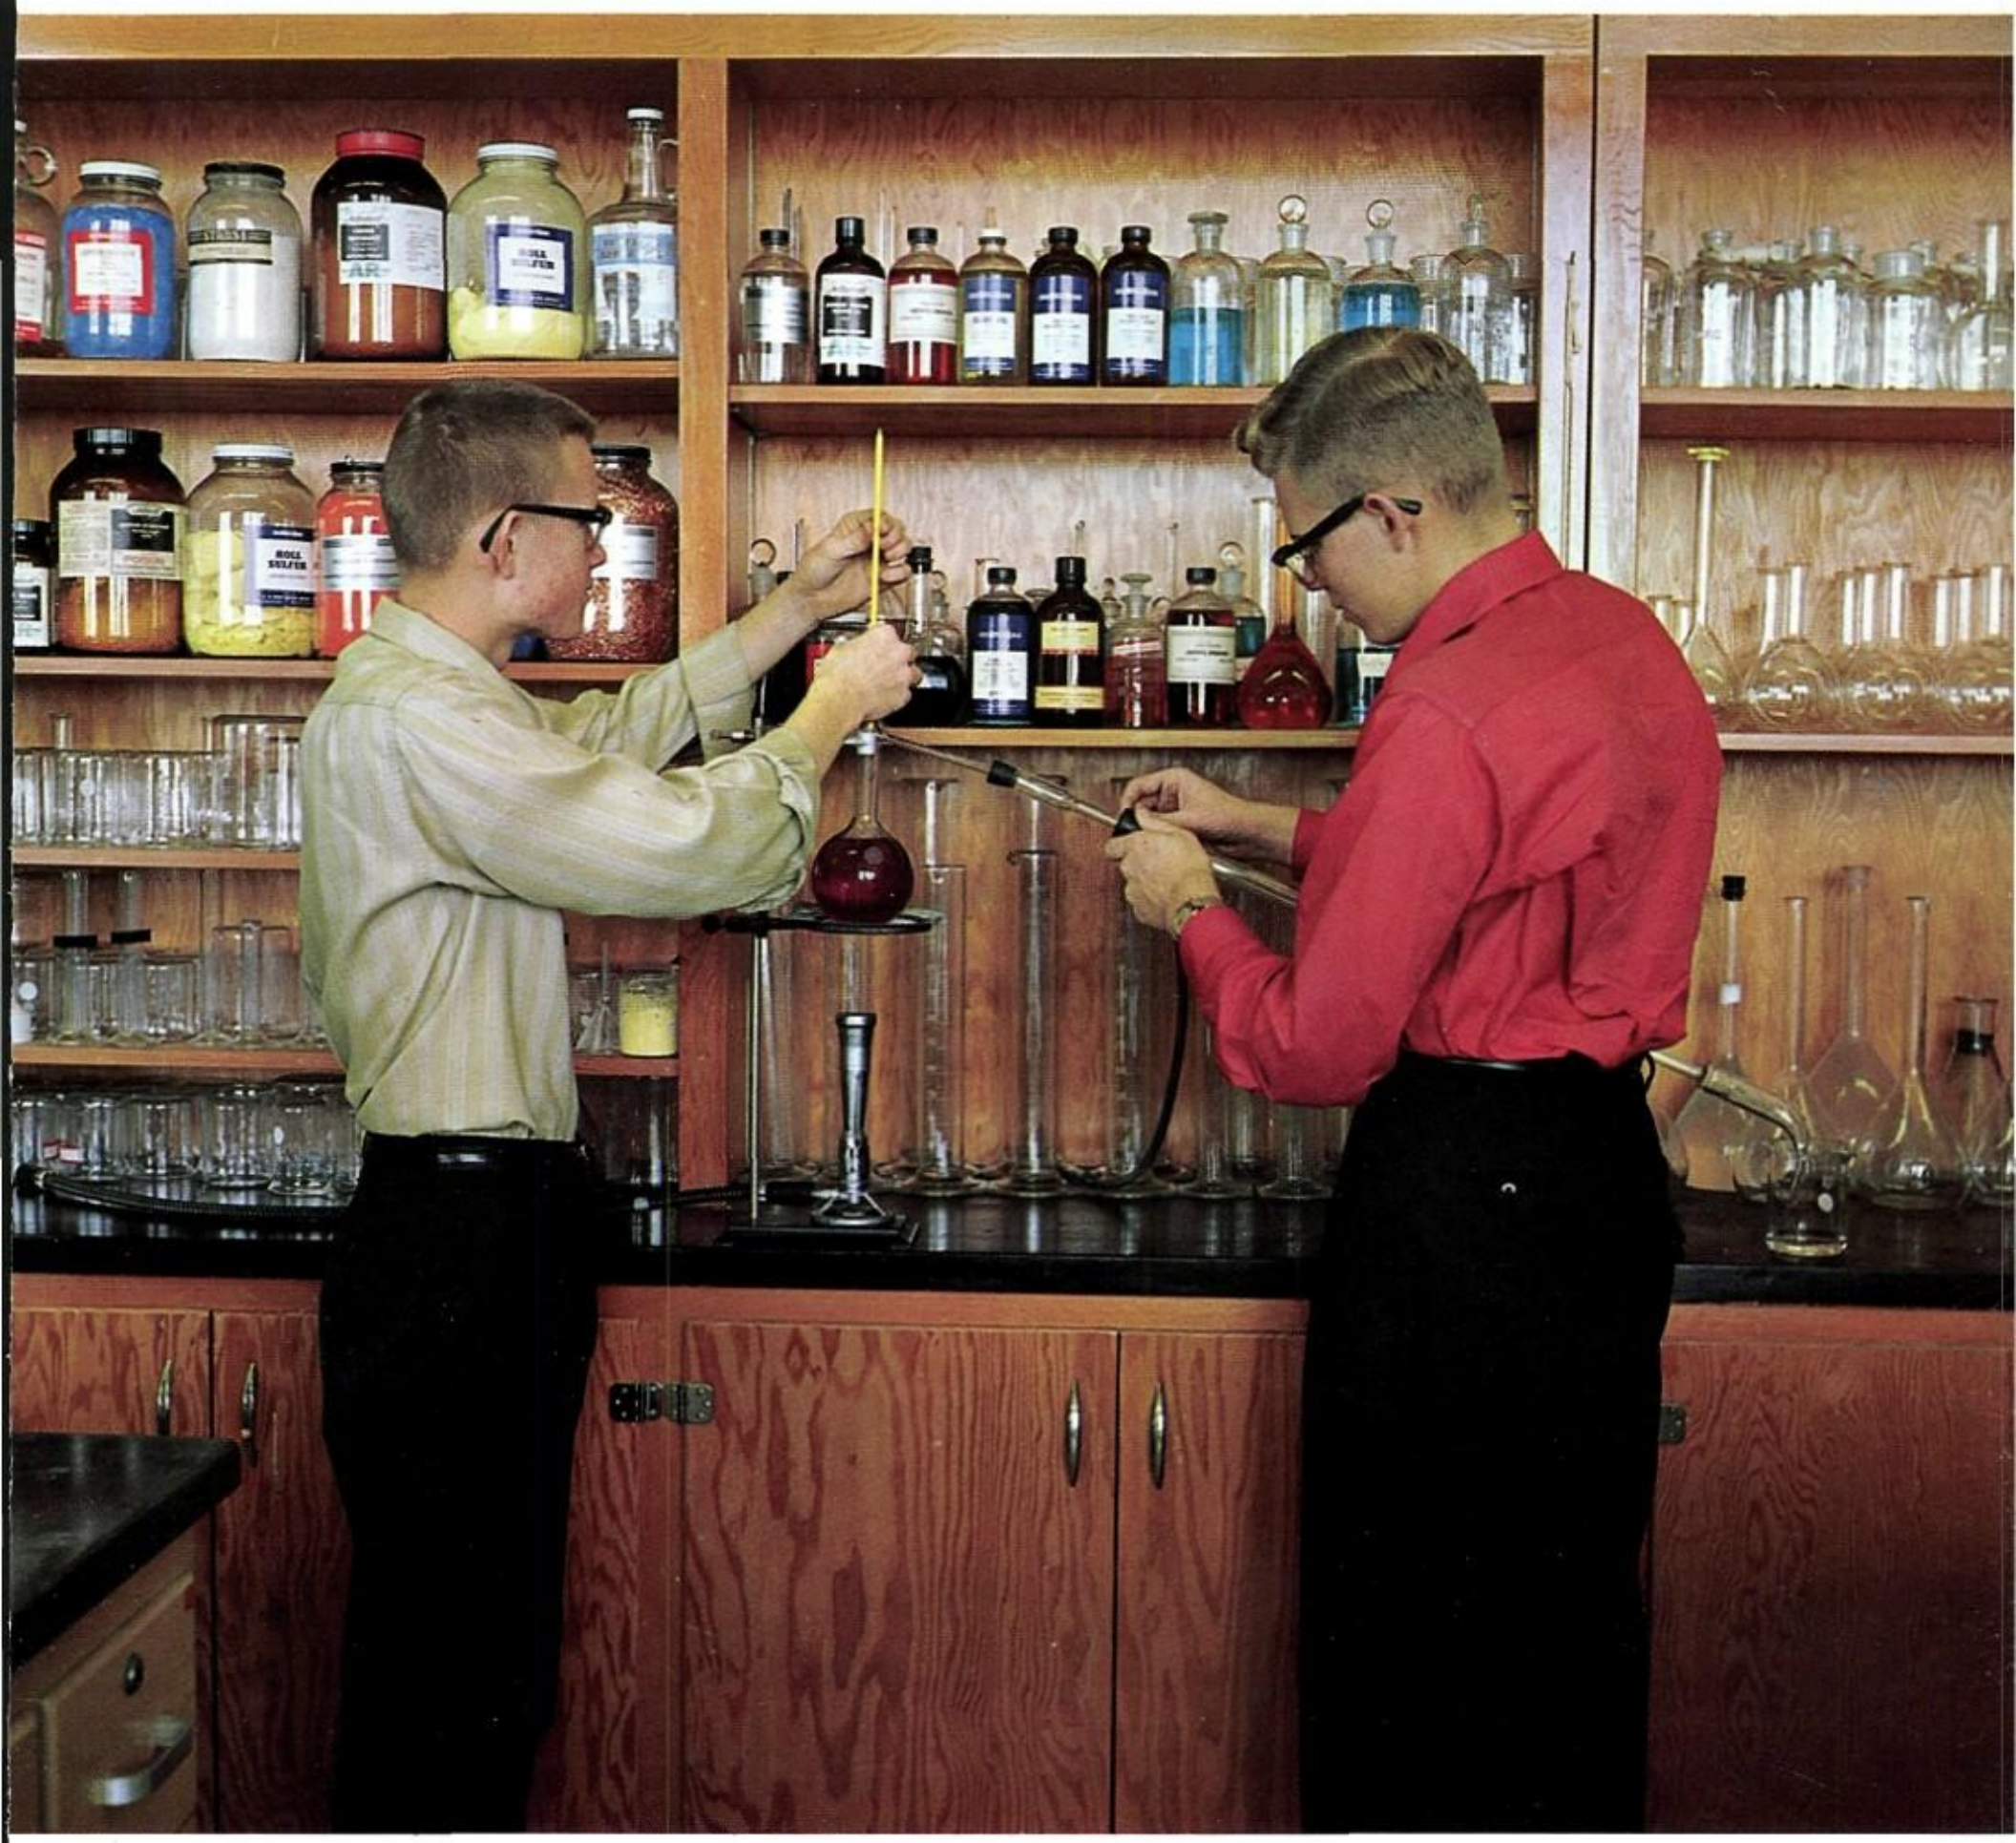
Chemistry, physics, and home economics classes in 1931 found students in longer skirts, different hair styles, and even different methods of learning, but they were of the same spirit as these shown in 1963.





In a chemistry lab equipped with the latest in materials students grasp what is presented and reach beyond.

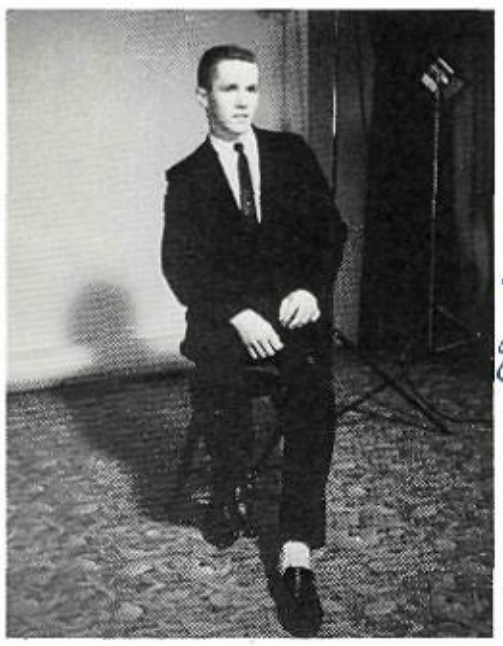
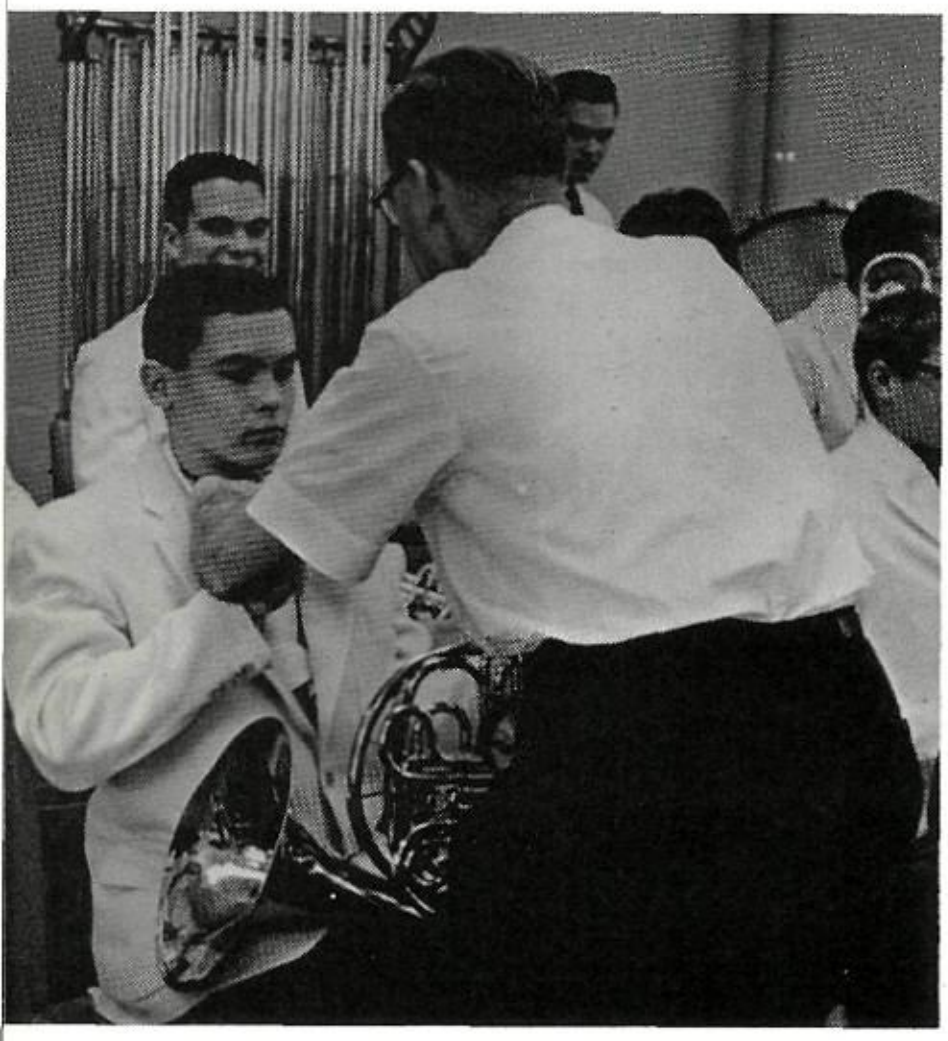
Mrs. McNeese,
You are the only "Let's Have Fun with English" teacher that I know. But that is not bad, it's good. It helps students to enjoy English more. I really have enjoyed having you for a teacher.
Eddie Gilmore



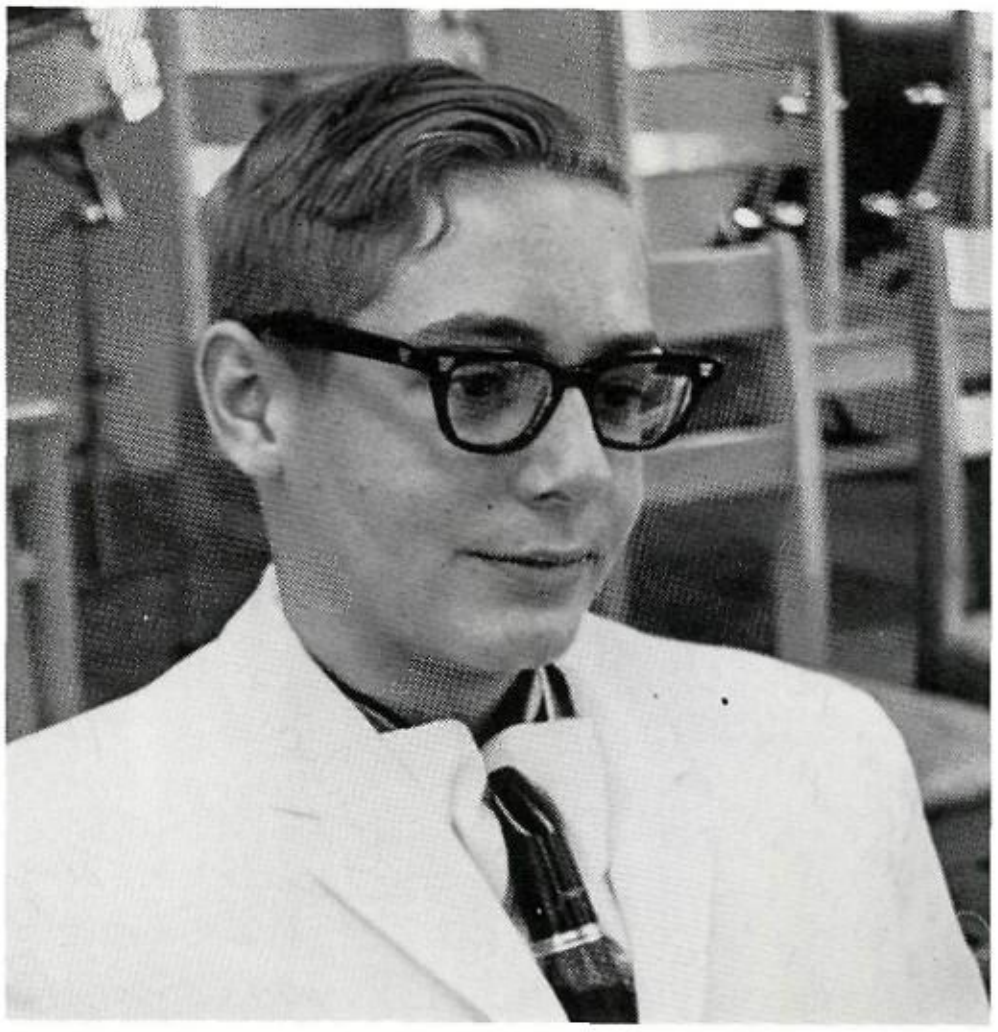
Every student knows the feeling of posing for his yearbook picture.

Milburne Alfred, the only photographer the thirty-year-old Sequoyah has ever had, sees in every student an interesting subject for a picture. For every routine group picture he takes there are many more unposed showing students in their delightful attitudes of fun. On these pages are a few of these pictures.

During the photographing of the orchestra, Mr. Minniear improvised ties for students who forgot.



This is the result of the improvisations.



Sometimes we saw Milburne just as he snapped the picture.

One could only guess at this expression.

This was the day the wind blew all the hats away while Milburne was taking pictures.

Choir members spend their time chatting while waiting for their group to be photographed.

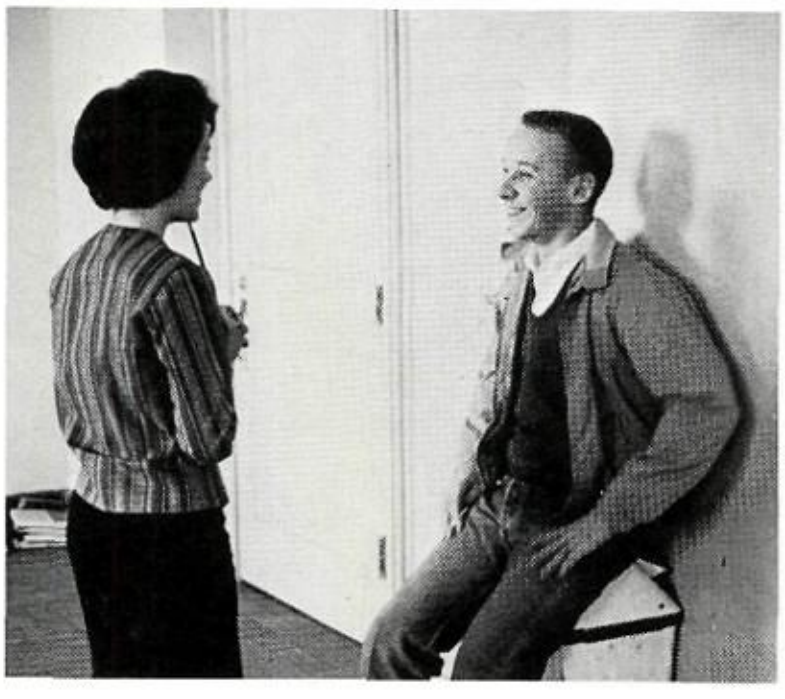
Milburne doesn't miss even the other photographers.

Candied apples go with candid expressions.

Tubes of eye makeup have relinquished their space in girls' purses to teasing combs and hair spray.

Lunchtime is one of the best for finding students in a happy mood.



R.O.T.C. picture days are a rush of uniform changing.

Mrs. McRee,
This year in Student Council has been thoroughly enjoyable, and your presence as sponsor has made it even more so. Thanks for making my Senior year an even better one than expected. May God bless you & may you continue to be such a fine teacher as you are.
Best of luck,
Joe

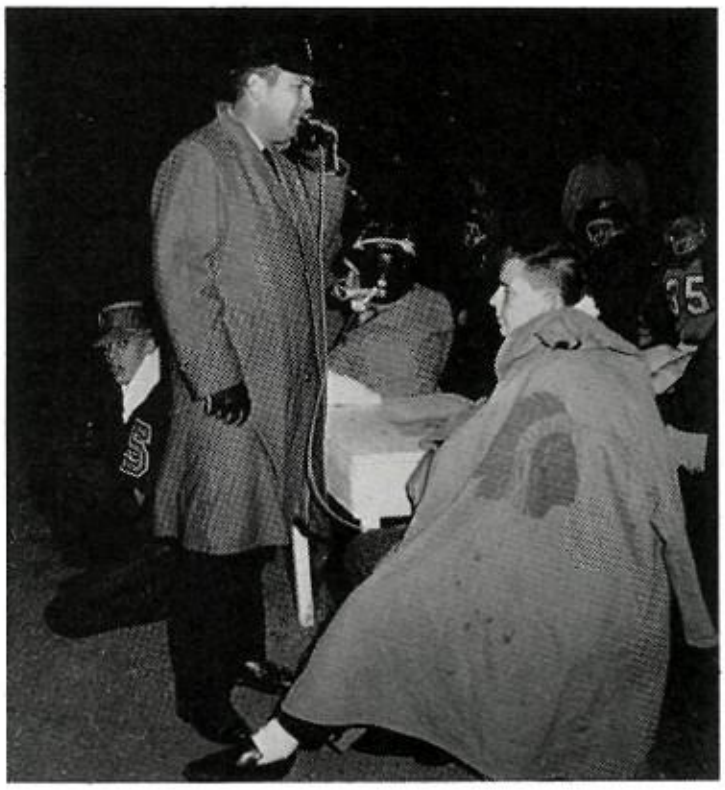
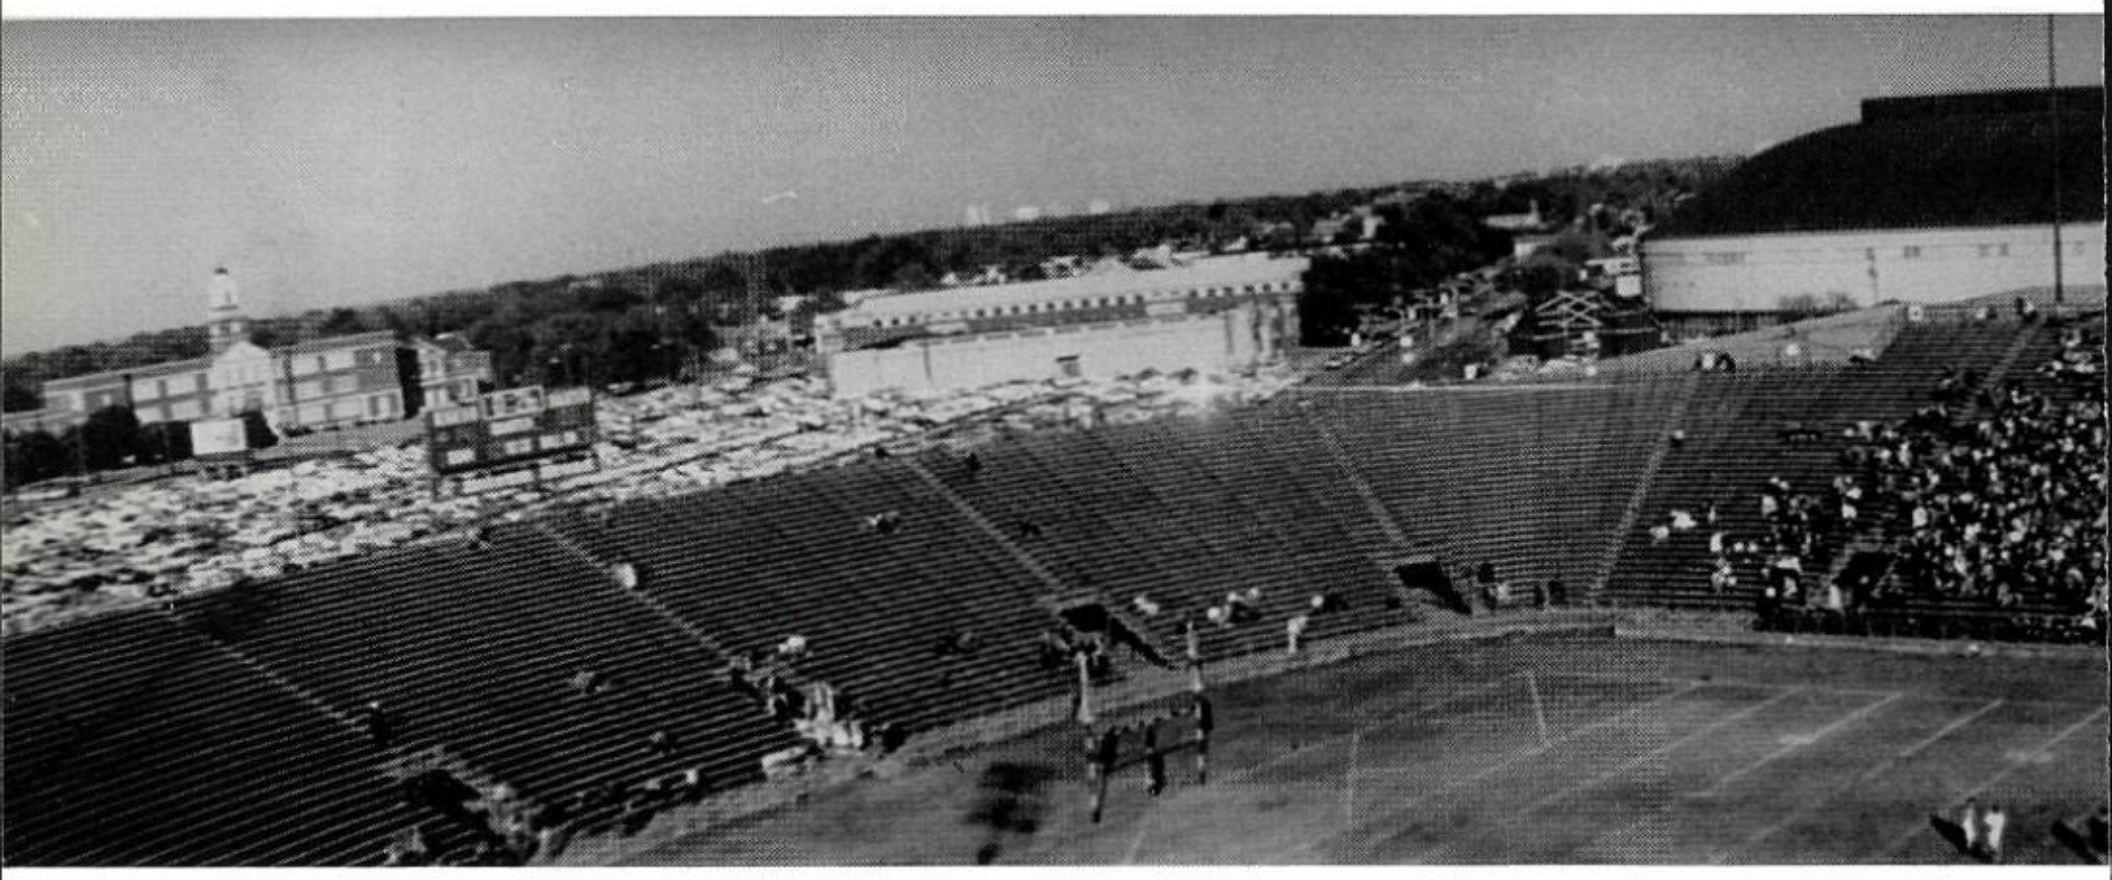
The Same Events

Years come and go and with them the yearly excitement of the traditional events. Every Fair Park student is familiar with football game tension, smiles as courts are presented, and the yell of "Go Big Indians" as the Indian dance is performed at pep rallies. The memories of our school ring with these special events.



Football games are attended by throngs of loyal fans.

"Football Sweetheart" is an honor bestowed each year upon a senior girl.



Gold corsages along with high spirits are the fashion at Fair Park.

Mrs. McNeese,

This has truly been one of the greatest years I have ever had and that includes English. Until this year I hated English but you have really made it "fun". I have made the greatest grades this year too, thanks to you. You are a wonderful ~~teacher~~ teacher and a wonderful person too. I just hope you don't think that I am the worst preacher's son you have ever met. May God bless you and keep you.

Love,

Languages . . . Foundations for the Future

Proficiency in speaking, reading, and writing is essential in every walk of life. Through the English courses at Fair Park, one learns the fundamentals of English usage and gains an appreciation of good literature.

The study of foreign languages brings further understanding of English and a knowledge of the culture of other countries.

Many sophomore students, such as Rae Reynolds, devise unique and imaginative techniques for sharing their interest in American literature with fellow students.

Mankind . . . Past, Present, and Future

The study of history, civics, and economics helps us to better understand present day conditions. Through World History we retrace the experience of mankind in its most important aspects. In American History we survey our nation from its beginning in the Old World to its problems caused by Communism today. Civics includes the study of local, state, and national government and economics, the principles involved in man's attempt to make a creative living.

In American History classes, seniors learn not only about our nation's heritage, but also about its relationships with other countries in the world today.

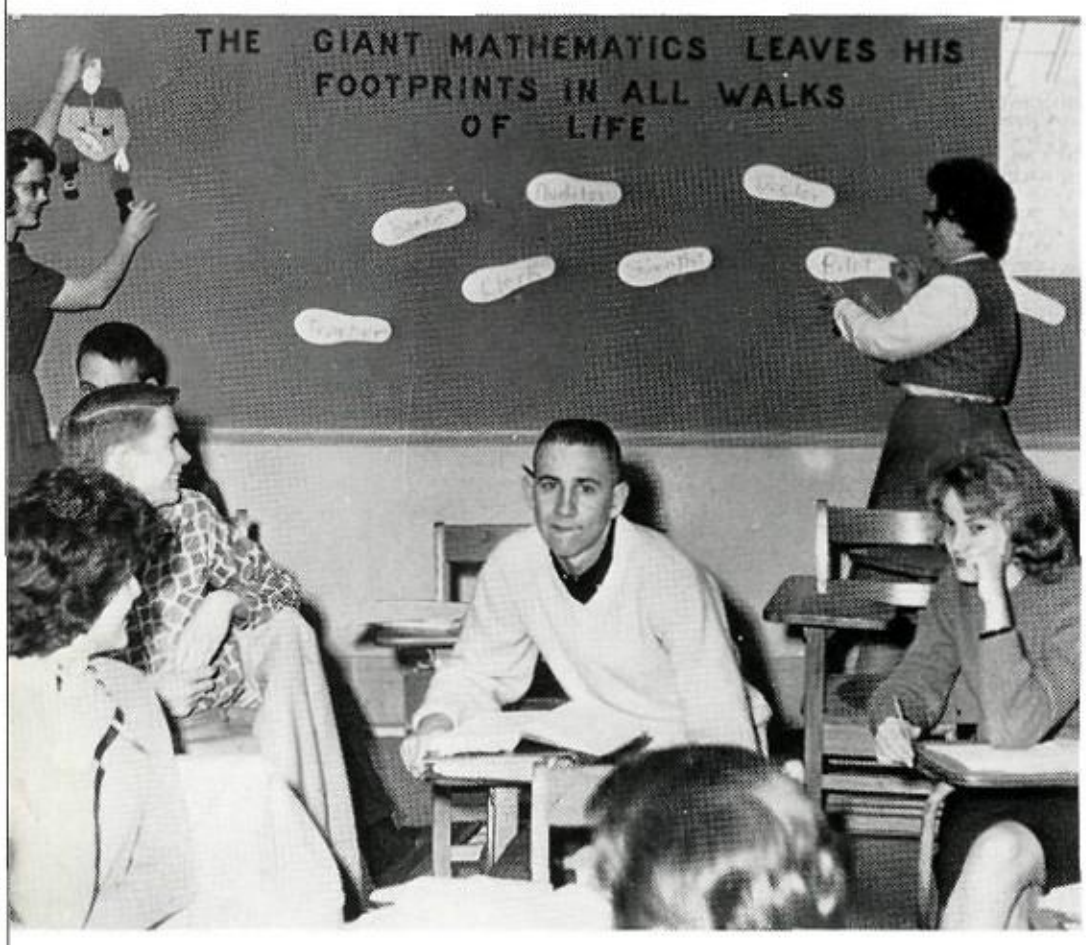
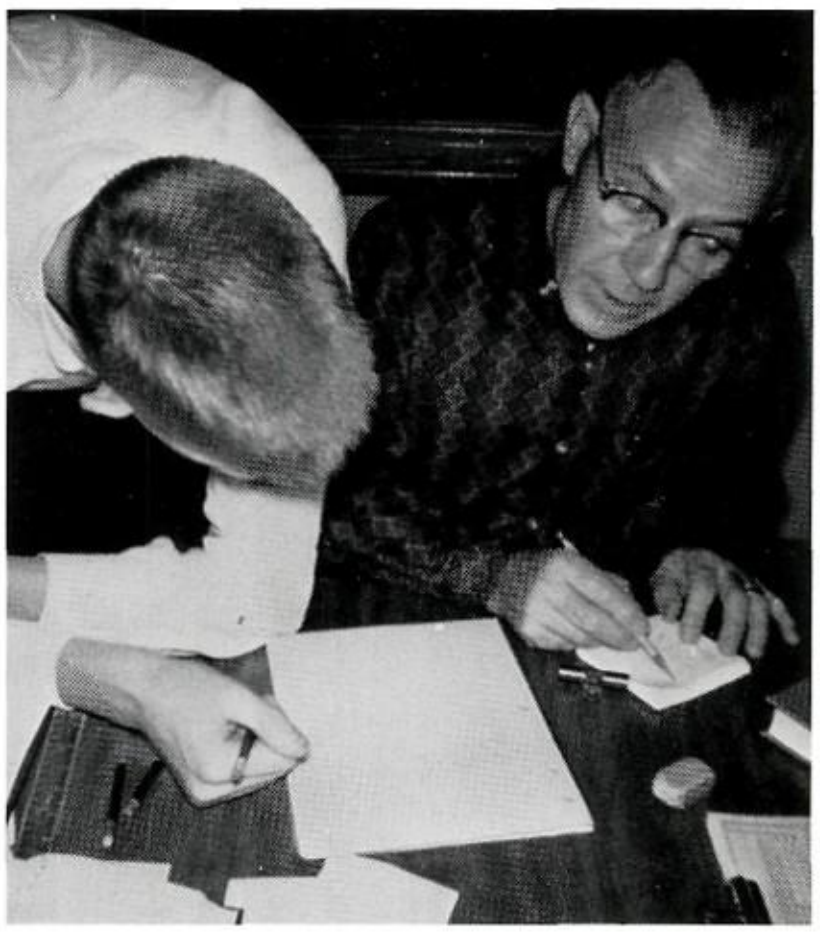
Math and Science . . . Today's

The importance of math and science cannot be exaggerated. Almost any career chosen by Fair Park students will involve an extensive study of at least one of these. The math courses offered develop one's ability to reason and prepare one for a future including college or vocational careers. The sciences give one an understanding of the forces affecting his everyday life.

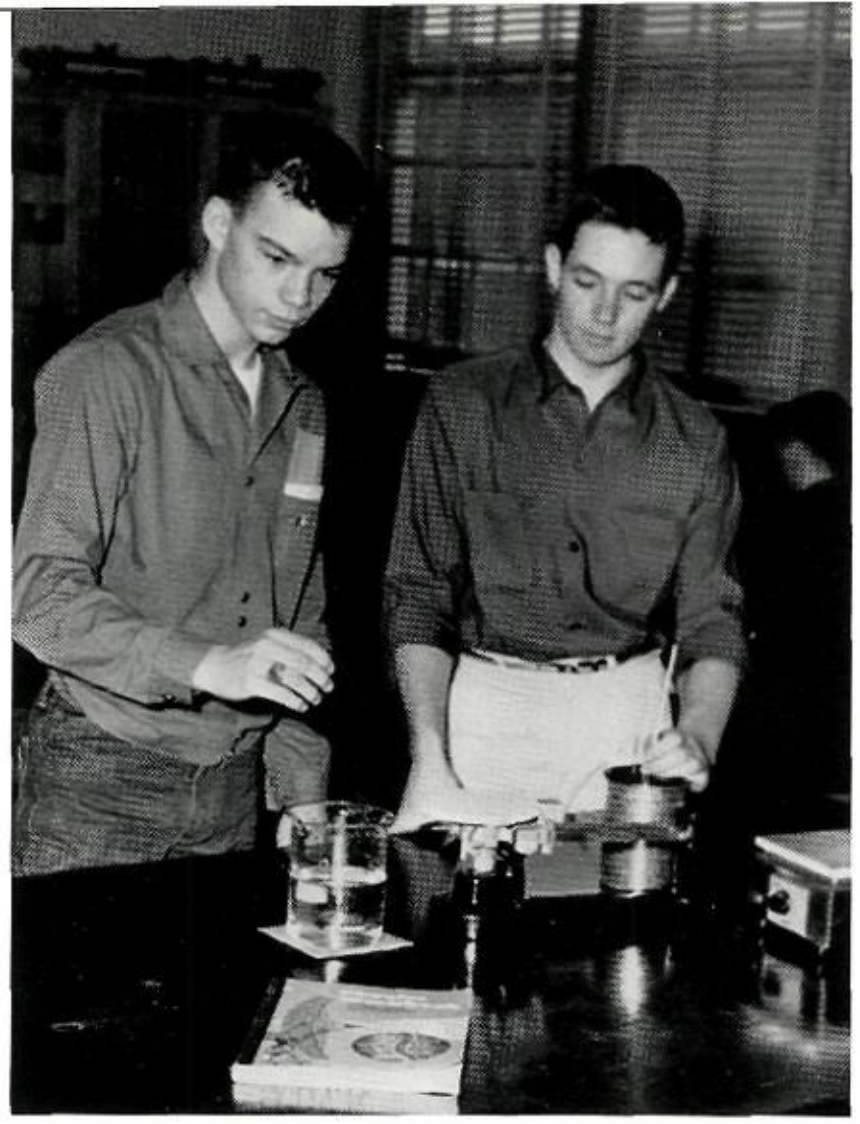
In their rapid-learner Algebra II, Jean Lewis and Penny Tucker show other class members how important mathematics is to future success.



In studying Plane Geometry students increase their power to reason logically. Here, Mr. Day explains the solution of a theory relating to a geometrical figure.



To Biology students the world of living things takes on new meaning. As they probe the microscopic world and learn about the intricacies of the human body, a wonder of discovery becomes apparent, making Biology a favorite subject.



By actual experimentation, as in this Physics lab, subject matter comes to mean more than just words in a textbook.

Commercial Skills Serve Varied Purposes

Commercial knowledge is useful in both vocational and personal life. Typewriting is an essential skill in almost any career or vocation. Bookkeeping is helpful in managing one's business affairs. Shorthand, Clerical Office Practice, and Business English offer good basic training for those who plan to enter a business career soon after graduation.

In Office Practice comprehensive training is provided in the operation of standard office machines. Here Joyce Bearden operates the comptometer.

Agriculture . . . Important Area Interest

Skilled Hands . . . A Happy Life

Skillful use of the hands is the keynote in Industrial Arts. In these courses students learn the basic methods of working with craft materials, wood, and metal, the use of power tools, design and color combination, newspaper printing, and technical drawing.

These students in General Metal are given an opportunity to develop manipulative skills and to acquire technical information about the general metal trades.

Music and Art Provide Enjoyment and Service

These two departments encourage students to develop their artistic inclinations and to have fun doing it. Musical abilities can be channelled toward the band, orchestra, and various choral groups. Fair Park POW WOW

...1963 Senior Will

I, KAYE HEIM, being of a very good mind, will to Anita Greenlee all my places on the absent list in hopes that it will come in handy next year.

I, JOAN PARIS, being of most unstable mind in FP, will to the upcoming senior girls the spray net-filled girls' dressing room.

I, MARK BELL, will my football helmet to any other athlete dumb enough to be able to get his face guard stuck under his chin. I also will all of my unmentionable trying hours in Mrs. Jennie Jones' room to Steve Magee and all other dissolutioned juniors. I will all my great "moments to remember" to anyone fortunate enough to attend Fair Park, especially the crazy times in Mr. Riche's choir to Peggy Innis and Karen Merrit.

I, NANCY LaLENA, being of sound mind and plenty of spirit, do hereby leave my office as vice-president in FHA to Carolyn Daniels. I also leave to Rita Huckabee my seat in Mr. Nutt's American history class with hopes that she has as much fun as I did.

I, PAULA BOWLIN, being of sound mind and faith (I think), having spent three wonderful years at Fair Park, including Mr. Slimer's and Mrs. McNeese's classes, will my Macbeth study sheets to Joyce Burnette and Diane Neely.

I, HAROLD ROBERTS, do hereby will my putting stroke to John Bolt, junior member of the golf team.

We, BARBARA JONES and LINDA GREEN, will our places on the hard, splintered bench at all the baseball games watching Fair Park win to anyone lucky enough to have a boyfriend on the team.

I, THOMAS COLEMAN, being of "snow - daddy mind", hereby will seven stitches, five pulled muscles, one loose tooth, a broken collarbone and jersey No. 35 to any fullback who loves the game well enough to earn it.

I, BRENDA DILBECK, do hereby will Charleen Boyd the ability to look life in the face and still be able to laugh. I leave her the memory of our good times at Fair Park. To Tishie Britt, I leave my chair in "A" choir.

We, GLENDA STANLEY, BRENDA DILBECK, JACKIE HARTSELL, AUDRA CALHOUN, SHERRY DICKERSON and DIANE MITCHELL, do will Tommie Coons our good old table and a sharp fork with which to protect her right.s

I, HERSCHEL WOMACK, on leaving Fair Park, shed no tears, but leave broad-minded. I give my most - honored job as car pool chauffer to the mothers of those crazy females. "No more pencils, no more books, no more teachers' dirty looks." I give a cheerful goodbye to those good old days.

We, WAYNE BURNETTE and LINDA TILTON, will our hiking equipment and wild friends from the journalism Leadership Conference to all those who are brave enough to step foot on the train headed for LSU.

I, BONNIE HANSON, being of sore feet and weak mind, hereby will my sponsor shoes and captain bars to Susan in hopes that she will have as much fun as I did. To "B" company I leave hope that Graff graduates, too! And last, I leave my most precious memories to every lucky Indian!

Being of worn and impeccable mind, I do hereby bequeath the following inane, inculcate possessions. I leave all of the cafeteria lunches to anyone that wants them. To Steve McDonald and Phil Langford I leave Miss Martin's vocabulary lists. They need it. To Miss Smith I leave a pair of tennis shoes to walk up and down the hall with. To Coach Wilson I leave my hair brush and two dabs of ',greasy kid stuff". The rest of my possessions are ineffable, therefore I, MIKE CARTWRIGHT, do hereby bring largess to an end.

I, MELODY ALLEN, being without knowledge and everything else, do hereby leave to the sixth period choir my favorite Antelope. I also leave my silver clips to Pat Allen, my beloved sister. To complete my will leave the fun, Mrs. Jones and her books, and the wonderful memories of my high school days to Fair Park.

I, LEILANI LANG, being of uncertain mind and ability, demolished nerves and shattered wits, do hereby freely and openly pass on to any junior girl all of the wonderful and unexpected adventures of being a sponsor. To Pam Kelly I leave the honor and the ridiculous strut of adjutant major. To Fair Park I say, "Thank you for the three unforgettable years."

I, SHARON McCOY, a benevolent being with abundant nature, leave to the sophomores with ferocious temperament, my red hair and my ability to leap a flight of stairs. To all, I donate my numerous senior gym locks and my versatlility from music to modeling, which should be used sparingly.

We, JAN HENDRICK and JOE HUFFMAN, will the third lunch shift to any FP couple and here's hoping that you don't have a Sheila Cashmer tagging in between you like we did.

I, RICHARD KINGCAID, being of sound mind but a very unsound body, do hereby will No. 51 on the football team to the person who can best fill the position (end).

I, SIDNEY LAUTER, being in a happy frame of mind, leave to the coming seniors of 1964, the memories of my senior year, which have made this year the greatest I could have wished for. To the sophomores I leave behind the best of these memories, and what I think are some of the greatest group of kids I have ever known. May God watch over you all.

I, CYNTHIA PICKERING, leave to my special boyfriend, Ronnie Bell, my vocabulary notebook from Mrs. McNeese's room and all the suckers he can eat in hopes that his pitching arm will help lead FP to another triumphant year.

I, ZOLLENE BOWMAN, being of unsound mind, do hereby will to Debbie Rowlen all of my wonderfol chores in Mrs. Herndon's office. Also to Kay Bacon, I leave my place at the football stadium for selling football programs.

We, BOBBIE PORTER, BECKY BRYANT, MARY McCOLLOUGH, and MARTHA USSERY, being of unsound mind, do hereby will our senior lunch table to Lillian Burrage, Letitia McInnis, Jackie Lockard, Barbara Russell and Jeane Humphries.

I, BARRY HARWELL, with sound brains and tired vocal cords, leave my worn-out track shoes to Steve Holt and Ronny Terry (one-apiece) hoping they don't ever fall off a bed.

I, JACK COPELAND, of sound body and weak mind, do hereby will to Patsy Monkhouse a million laughs and to anyone who is unlucky enough to get it, a seat in Mrs. Monette's first-period DE class.

I, JOE HUFFMAN, of feeble mind and worn out body, leave the position of senior class president to some poor, innocent soul, and here's hoping you have a class sponsor like Miss Vines who is as interested in having a "good time" as we are!!!! To Buddy Nelson, I leave the most lovable, understanding, sweet-tempered coach in the world — Coach Farrar?

I, JUDY MAGEE, being of unsound mind, do hereby will my seat in Miss Vines' room to Dwanna McInnis. I also will my good times here at Fair Park to any student that is lucky enough to have them.

I, JO ANN SMITH, being of questionable mind, do hereby will my scratched desk in Miss Vines' American history class and to Fair Park I leave, I hope!

I, SANDRA WILKINSON, being of sound mind, hereby will all my many memories and worries to any junior who thinks he or she can endure them!

I, DAVID WORTHINGTON, will the following: my football cage to any unfortunate athlete who has buck teeth; all unscored points remaining in my basketball jersey, No. 15, to Dick Hicks; and my unbreakable baseball bat and No. "10" to the greatest bat breaker of all time, Buddy (Louis) Nelson.

I, JIM CAUSEY, being of sober mind but weak knees, do hereby will my high post as goof-off of Fair Park High School (1962-63) to Richard Simmons, who well deserves it.

I, HOWARD MOSES, being of sound mind and indubitable character, do will to any poor soul "lucky" enough to be in Mrs. Jones' class my very well worn seat in 216. Also, to the future members of the senior play . . . good luck!

I, JANE FLOWERS, being of sound mind and body, will my chair in 204 to Gayle Feibel.

I, RUTHIE POWELL, being of sound mind, will to Donna Eagle my seat in Mr. Slimer's class in hope that she will make better grades than I did.

Being of sound mind, I, ELLEN BAYNE, hereby will my seats in office practice and bookeeeping and shorthand to my sister, Barbara. I also will my dilapidated pen to Janis Bland for a great and successful year in Shorthand II.

I, RICKEY HOLLAND, who must be of unsound mind to get mixed up in this, will C company to Patti Rambin and to the cadet who can make it best company next year.

We, T.C., D.C., B.L. and P.J. do hereby will one can of denture grip to D.B.T. so that his progress in athletics may be slowed somewhat.

I, BUBBA MEAGHER, being sound of mind, will to anyone crazy enough to accept it: 1. One bleached, blonde wig perfect for a bloomer-bowl cheerleader; 2. One grey wig perfect for a "Charley's Aunt". Also I will to all juniors the fun, happiness, disappointments, sorrows and greatness of a senior year.

To Mr. Weldon we leave PEACE! Signed PATSY McCLEARY, KARL WHITE, ALLEN THYSSEN, SANDRA FOSTER and JEANETTE WILLIAMS.

I, PAT SHARPE, being of sound body and unwilling mind, do hereby leave to any junior who is lucky enough to get Mr. Slimer my chair in the back of his room. I also will my rank as major of the flags in Honor Legion to Mary Ann Rose. Good luck!

I, DOROTHY ELLIS, being of very unsound mind and shattered nerves, do hereby leave! I hope that students to come will have as much fun, excitement, joy, wonderful teachers and homework (ugh) as I did. Au revoir, Fair Park High School.

The long hours of practice and daily rehearsals pay off for Fair Park's advanced orchestra in a successful Christmas concert.

The string section of the advanced orchestra is composed of hard-working students who have had two or more years' playing experience.

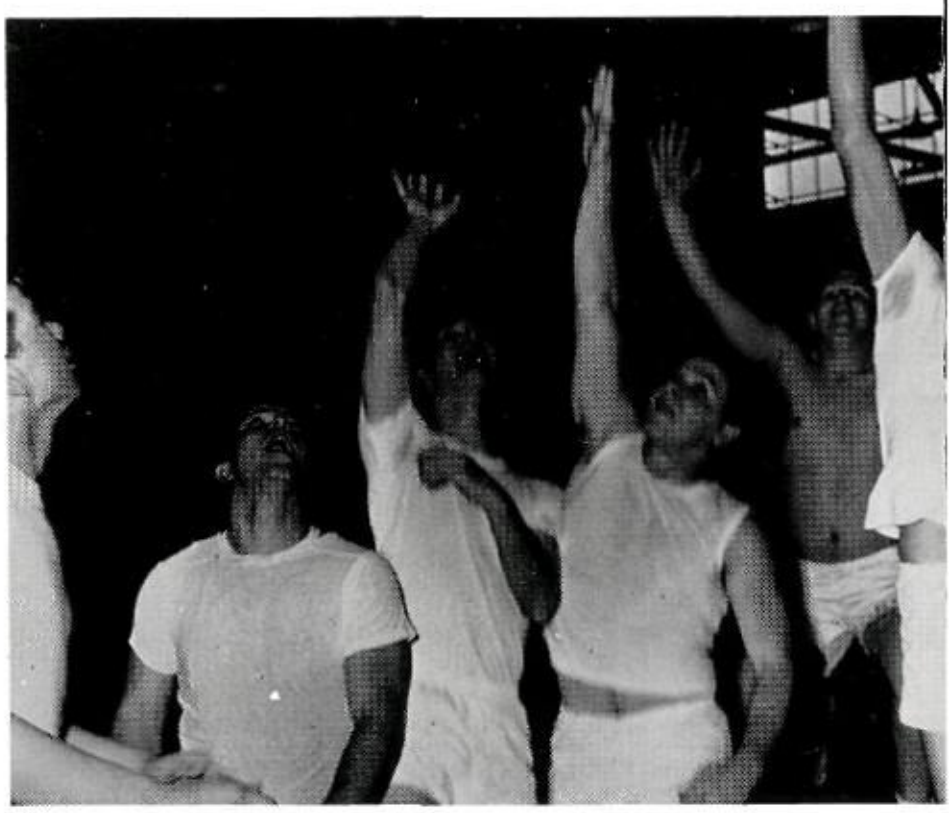
A Strong Body and A Strong Mind

With the accent on both team work and individual skills, an extensive program of physical education is offered at Fair Park. For the girls there is basketball, softball, soccer, volleyball and various types of dance. There are lecture classes in health, first aid, dance history, and genetics. For the boys there is touch football, basketball, softball, and volleyball, soccer, fundamental gymnastics, tumbling and track.



Play is just as enthusiastic in a regular boys gym class as in competition with other schools.

Discipline, Honor, and Patriotism

The purpose of the Junior R.O.T.C., operated by regular army personnel, is to instill in each cadet discipline, respect for authority, patriotism, honor, precision and orderliness. Each cadet is also taught elementary military training, of value should he become an Armed Forces member.

Three lunch shifts afford every student an opportunity to enjoy the wholesome, well-balanced meals offered in the school cafeteria.

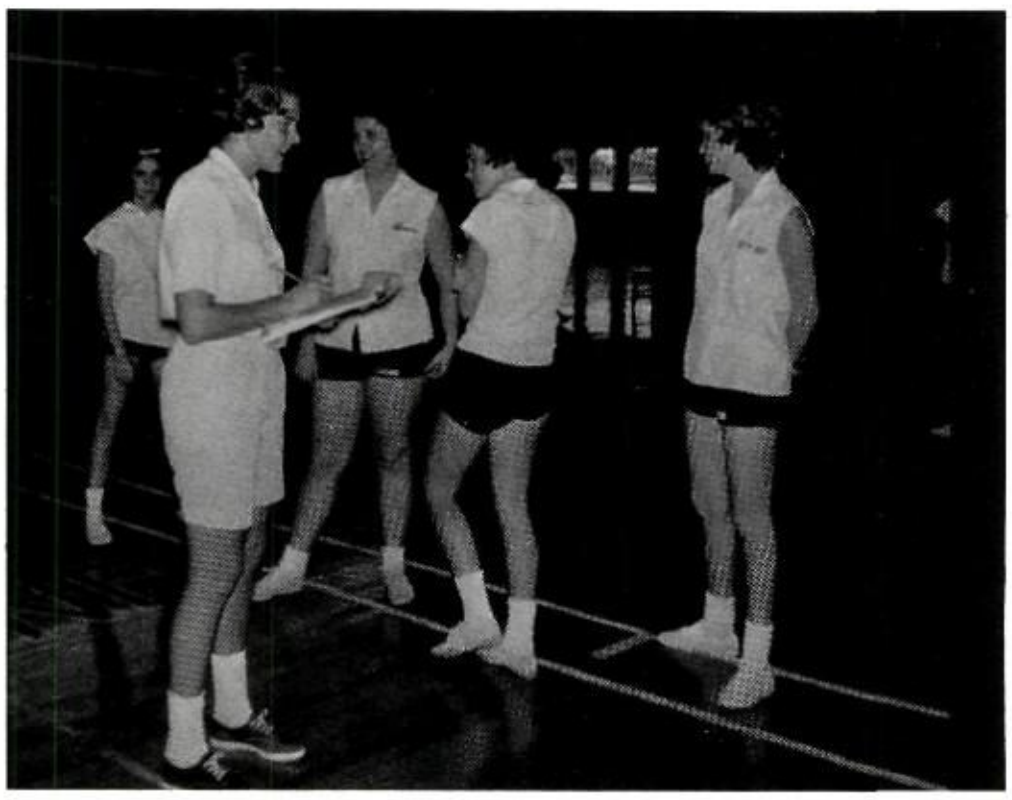
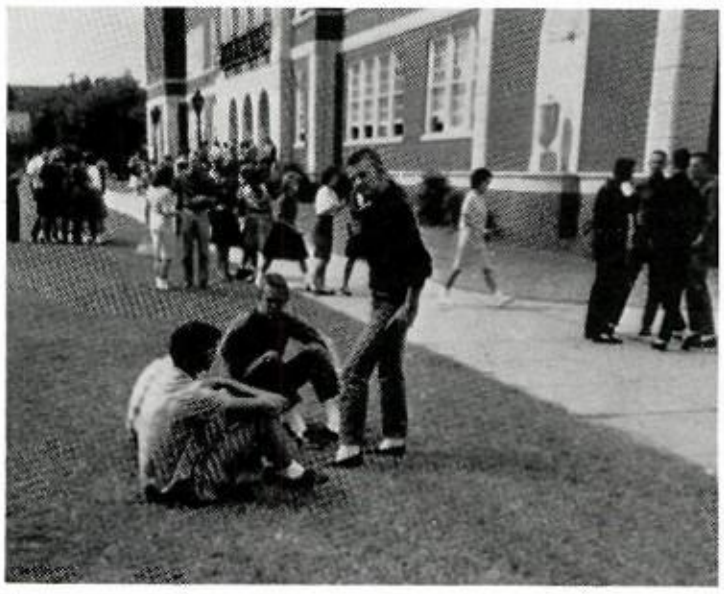
Mrs. Harris checks to see that each girl has the correct uniform before starting class each day.



A welcome break from studies is taken by students during a lunch shift.



The taut nerves of officers, sponsors, and cadets in this early parade are not visible to spectators. The parades given every Wednesday are a stirring sight and give one a renewed sense of patriotism.

Mrs. McNeese,

Please excuse the writing, as I am use to printing in your room. Since school is nearly out I would like to inform you that I haven't defined any of your vocabulary words since the first of school, and that is why I didn't make very good grades on your tests.

Don't be surprised if I come up to you next year and say "Happy Days are here again". Hoping to ameliorate, in the years to come.

yours loving Son,

Dear Mrs. Mac,
Words can't express the feeling I have for you as a person and a teacher. You're the greatest teacher as a teacher and friend I've ever had. Thanks for all you've taught me and helped with my petty problems. Always remember me and pray for me as I go to College. Lots of love to a great teacher,

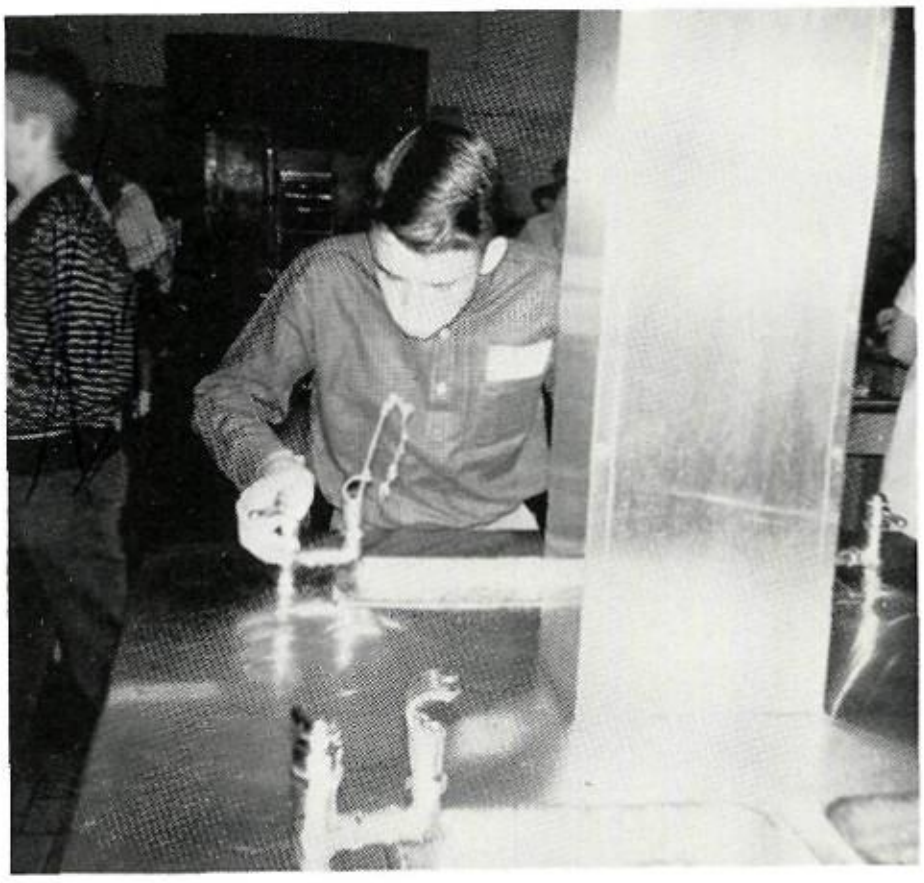
Sophomores Are Everywhere

Now the school day is over and they are on their way home.

The water fountain in the cafeteria serves many people during the day.



Mrs. McNeese,

I can't keep your hour much
I have enjoyed being in y
class this year, I admire y very much for your Christian and in your classes, I may say though, I'll be awfully glad
I wanna have to take any more.
Fact, I'll have to admit
they did help me. I hope y don't miss me too much year. Ha! I only hope I wasn't to much trouble for you. I wish you and the blessings that can give. Merry
Thanks
Year.
Yours,
Love ya,

FAIR PARK 6—CARTHAGE 14

In the season's opener for the Indians, the Bulldogs from Carthage pulled an upset over the tribe. It was a neck and neck battle from whistle to horn, but the tribe's inability to capitalize on their breaks in the opening half proved to be the difference.

The tribe was led offensively by quarterback David Worthington and halfback Sidney Lauter. David hit on 8 for 20 passes and Sid gained a total of 37 yards on the ground.

"B" TEAM—FIRST ROW: Herby Johnson, Kelvin Gage, Jimmy Burton, Jimmy Fisher, Dennis Bouck, Don Bartect, Charles Upchurch, Danny Rayburn, Tommy Johnson, Berney Walker. The Indians, plagued by injuries, put up a good battle but the Knights wore down the tribe and scored frequently during the second half.

Halfback Sid Lauter was the team's most effective runner, picking up 23 yards on 5 carries.

FAIR PARK 14—EL DORADO 6

Victory hungry Indians garnered their first win of the season by defeating El Dorado 14-6.

Fullback Thomas Coleman had his best night of the season leading all rushers with 61 yards on 18 carries and scoring both Indian touchdowns.

Jerry Solice, Franklin Neel, and Eddie DeHondt sparked an Indian defense that held the Wildcats to 15 yards total offense during the entire first half.

FAIR PARK 13—JESUIT 13

Twice on the brink of victory, the Fair Park Indians were caught from behind by the Blue Flyers and had to settle for a 13-13 tie.

The red men drew first blood when speedy halfback Gene Solice sprinted 22 yards for a first quarter touchdown. Jesuit proceeded to tie the game up 7-7 with a second quarter touchdown. Once more the Tribe pulled out front on a TD pass from David Worthington to Mark Bell. But again the Flyers knotted the score on a last quarter splurge.

Offensively the tribe was led by Worthington with 63 yards and Solice with 62 yards. Dave also hit for 61 yards via the airlanes.

FAIR PARK 14—ISTROUMA 39

State triple "A" champ, Istrouma, had its hands full with the Indians for the first half of play but came out and wore down the Tribe in the second half. The final score was 39-14 with the Istrouma tribe on top.

The Indians sparkled early in the game with only a minute and a half gone when fleet-footed Gene Solice took off on a 58 yard scamper to give the tribe first blood.

Roger Mann, defensive safety, intercepted a Bastrop aerial and scampered for the game's only score as the Indians repulsed the Rams 6-0.

The tribe racked up 207 yards on the ground in one of the best team efforts of the year. The defensive team was especially outstanding, putting on two goal-line stands and stopping the Ram time after time in critical situations.

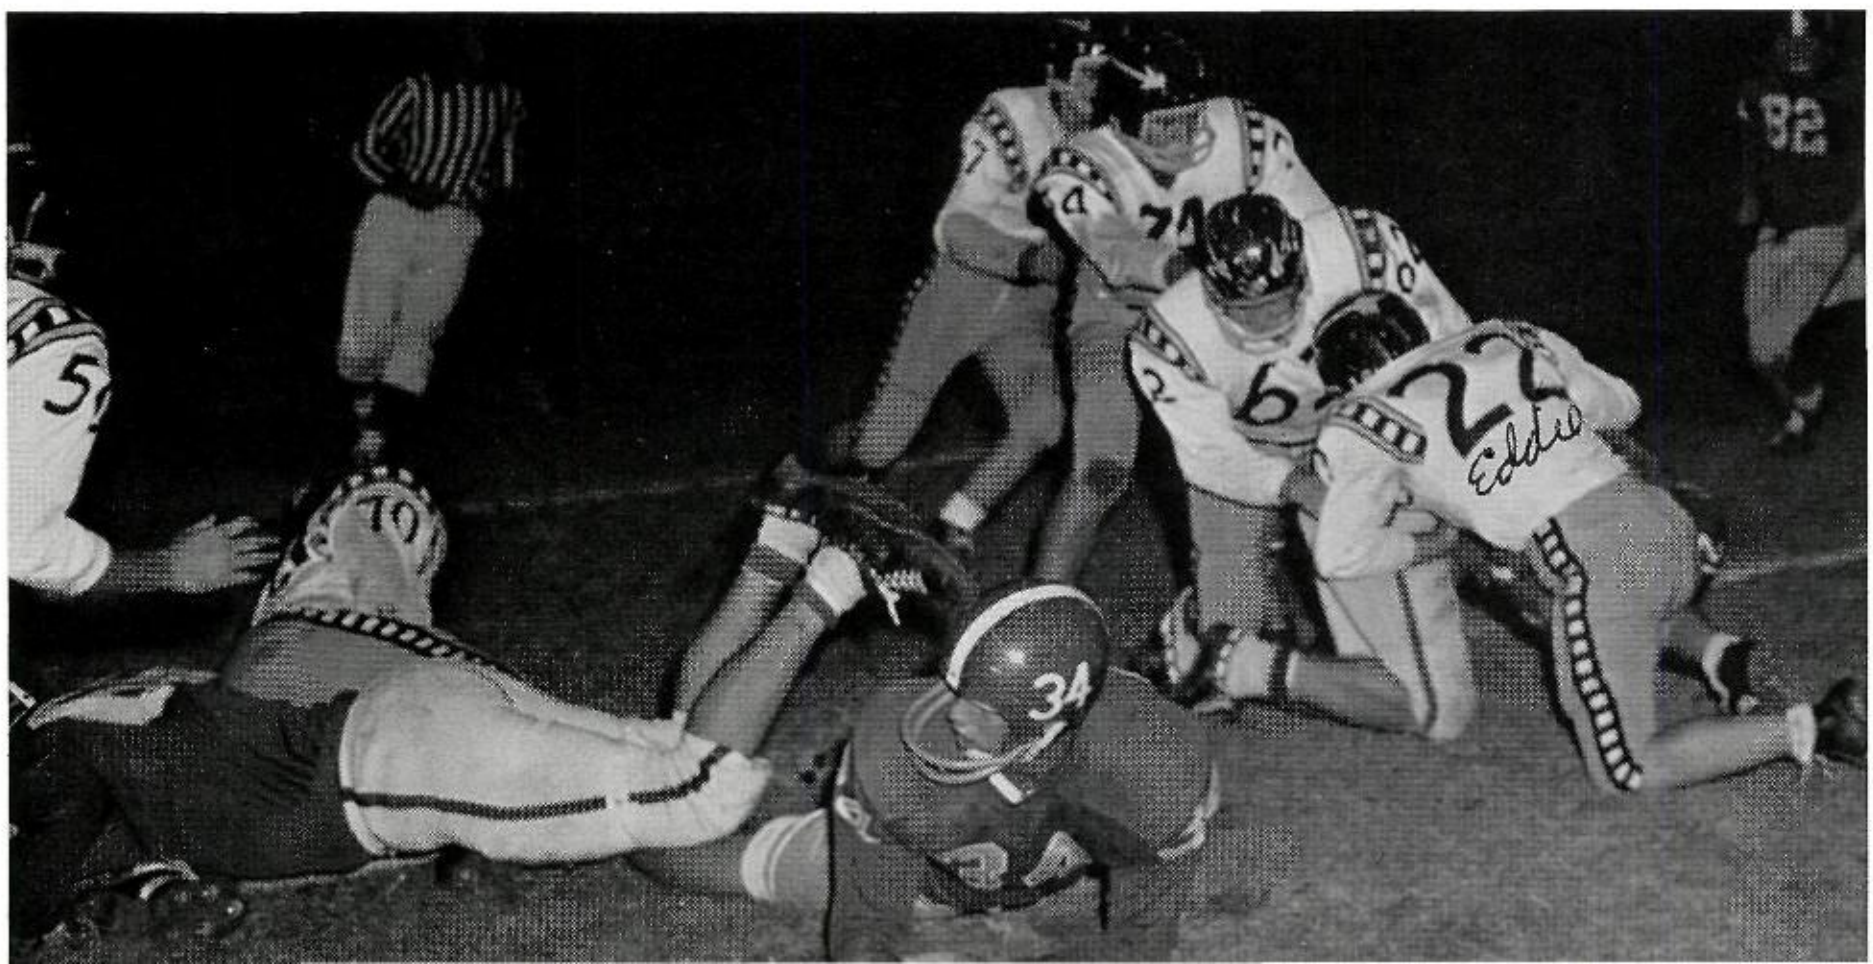
The ground gaining was evenly divided between four backs. Sidney Lauter ran up a total of 79 yards on 14 carries, Steve Schmidt hit for 40 yards on 9 tries, Dave Worthington had 36 yards on 10 carries, and Joe Huffman chipped in with 30 yards on 6 bulls at the Ram line.

FAIR PARK 21—OUACHITA 0

The reservation warriors scalped the Ouachita Lions by a score of 21-0. The tribe ran well and played all around good football in racking up their season high pointwise.

David Worthington led the Indians, passing for two touchdowns to ends Mark Bell and Tommy Chiles and running for the third and final one. Sidney Lauter also had a good night with 86 yards on 9 carries. Flawless on the extra points, Lynk Carpenter converted all three PAT's.

Gang tackling sets pace for Indian win.



FAIR PARK 13—BOSSIER 21

The fired-up tribe from Fair Park played Bossier's Bearkats all over the field for 48 minutes worth of football, but the Kats used an 89 yard kickoff return late in the game as a lever to a 21-13 victory.

Sid Lauter tallied 12 points while scoring both Indian touchdowns. He also led the tribe rushers with 95 yards on 13 carries.

FAIR PARK 9—MINDEN 13

The traditional homecoming game, with the Minden Tide as opponent, ended in a 13-9 loss, but the officials stole the show. The men in striped shirts walked off 234 yards worth of penalties with the tribe collecting 124 and the Tide 110.

Offensively the tribe packed plenty of power on the ground. Steve Schmidt led all rushers with 98 yards on 11 carries. Also gaining good yardage was Joe Huffman with 55 yards on 9 charges.

The loss left the Tribe with 12 wins, 17 losses, and 2 ties in the series with the Byrdmen.

For the season, the Indians' worksheet ended with a 3-7-1 record.

The Indians did have some heroes. Dave Worthington ended a fine season by throwing and passing well. End Tommy Chiles managed to snag two of the aerials despite being double-teamed most of the day. Sophomore Steve Jones led the assault forces with 27 yards on 11 carries.

Fair Park Wins State Championship

"We're number one. We're number one." These sounds rang through the Hirsch Memorial Youth Center on the night of March 9 as the Fair Park Indians defeated the Lions of Lafayette 56-49 for the State Triple-A Championship.

This game was the highlight of the basketball year at Fair Park. The hardwood trotters compiled a reputable record of 32-5 for the entire season. Only a single point kept their district record (11-1) from being unblemished.

To their credit goes first place in the East Texas Baptist College Tournament and the Fair Park Tournament. Second places were achieved in the Bossier, Byrd, and Woodlawn tournaments.

The tribe was led in offense and defense by Charles Beasley who finished the season with a 24.8 points per game average. He set a single game scoring record for Fair Park with an amazing 46 points in the East Texas Baptist College Tournament. Also to his credit goes the all-time top scoring record for the Greater Shreveport High School area. Swishing the nets time after time was 5' 9" guard Jim Pruett. Andy Fullerton, a junior with great promise, set a single game record for Fair Park with 36 rebounds in a game against Jefferson.

The "B" Team also finished first tying with Bossier. They racked up a 13-4 season record while 10-2 was the district score.

The Sophomore Team came through with the title in its division. The season slate was 11-2. They won the Fair Park Sophomore Tournament.

On March 15 in a special assembly The Honorable Clyde E. Fant, mayor of Shreveport, presented his proclamation of "Fair Park Day" and "Clem Henderson Day." Jim Purett, captain of the State Championship team, presented the trophy to the school. The team was presented with blankets from the West Shreveport Lions Club. A traditional Indian dance performed around the trophy closed the memorable assembly.

Danny Walker and Charles Beasley formed a feared doubles combination which copped the district title among their impressive victories.

Although the team lost twice to the state runner-up Byrd team, one was an 8-6 loss, which wasn't decided until the last match.

Mrs. Mc

To one of the best, nicest, and most beautiful teacher in FPHS I owe the great success of my senior year. I know I wasn't your best pupil, nor was I the most co-operative, but I truly belief that we have made and acquaintence that will last forever —— I'm sure that you have fully prepared me for my life in college (English especially). I know the juniors next year will not realize the treat they will have in store for them —— I've enjoyed it very much and I only hope I will always be

The highest point of every Junior's year is the election of the delegates to mythical Pelican State. The students are elected by the faculty and student body on the basic requirements of initiative, leadership abilities, scholarship and personality. On the campus of Louisiana State University these fifteen delegates learned the fundamentals of local, parish and state government by electing their own officials and performing the duties of their office. During the nine-day stay, Kathy McMichael was elected to the highest position, "Governor."

Delegates not attending were Richard Berger and Bubba Meagher. Alternates not attending were Keenan Borland, Judy Boyd, Ronnie Bryson, Ann Busenbarrick, Franklin Dordan, Jack Gates, Jill Gates, Bonnie Hill, Charley Houston, Sammy O'Donnell, Katie Trimble, and Cynthia Watts.

National Honor Societ

The National Honor Society is the highest hon given in high school. Juniors and seniors are eligib to receive membership if they qualify in scholarshi in leadership, in service, and in character.

Each person considered for membership must ha a B average in all academic subjects. Physical educ tion. ROTC, choir, and glee club are not average subjects included are those requiring homework.

Service and leadership appear in activities beyo class work. Appearances before civic groups as repr sentatives of Fair Park; monitoring for tests; servi on publications, in the cafeteria, in the library, a in the office; and club work are considered for me bership. Being a member of a group is not a reco mendation. One must serve; one must attend meetin regularly; one must accept responsibilities within t group. When a person is a junior, he must have serv in two different areas.

Character reveals itself through behavior; throu association with one's fellow students; through re tionship to teachers and administrators.

Membership to National Honor Society comes to person from teacher recommendation.

News Editor, Jeanette Lee and Feature Editor, Jeannie Waites work on lay-outs at Printers.

In its twenty-fourth year of publishing the school news the Pow Wow editorial staff continues to produce a fine newspaper.

The staff is made up of forty-three reporters and thirteen editors. Writing and editing the happenings at Fair Park is the task of this group. Representatives of the staff attended the Leadership Conference held at Baton Rouge.

Members of the staff are eligible for Quill and Scroll if they have a 2.8 average and have fifty printed column inches or have done outstanding work on the staff.

Miss DeLane Smith has served us as sponsor of the staff since 1954. She is also a teacher of journalism, which is a requirement for staff membership.

Art Editor Brenda Brown and Publicity Director Barbara Jones make a more interesting paper with the use of art.

Ad Sales Help Finance Paper

Soliciting ads has kept the Pow Wow Ad Staff on the go. To meet their goal, sales campaigns began before September.

Eugenia Mitchell, advertising manager, and Barbara Bracken, financial manager, have headed the sales throughout the year. Sponsor, Mrs. Dalton, sees that new ads are sold and records kept of ads to be used in the Pow Wow.

Through selling ads, each girl learns the proper way to meet the public. There is good experience and training for all on this staff.

Advertising Manager, Eugenia Mitchell and Financial Manager, Barbara Brackin, call to verify an ad.

Checking contracts with checks received are Lamora Brummett, Sharon Kihneman, and Ellen Bayne, Recorder.

Looking over ads are, STANDING: Mary McIlwain, Ellen Rose, and Diane Tatum. SEATED: Barbara Brantly, Sally Sanders, and Marilyn Mitchell.

Kay Ray, Delores Outz, and Lynda Kneipp type contracts.

Editorial Staff Presents 30th Edition of Sequoyah

When students started pouring onto the Fair Park campus in September to begin "F.P.H.S., 1963"; work had long been under way on the 1963 Sequoyah. No sooner than the staff heads had been appointed, a capable and efficient staff began to prepare 320 pages of copy and photographs. Throughout the past thirty editions of the Sequoyah, each staff tried to achieve the finest Sequoyah ever. This year the staff worked harder to make this edition the one that will be well-remembered as the best.

In producing this book, the staff was made to feel more keenly the unity of Fair Park student body. It required much work, but along with this came pleasure and satisfaction of a job well done.

While in Dallas, sponsor Miss Sammie Banks, editors Charlotte DeArman, Jeanette Williams, and Jo Carol Ward, work with the Taylor Publishing Company representative to achieve new and better ideas for the 30th edition.

Class Editors Jill Gates and Jo Carol Ward kept up with over fifteen hundred class portraits without a single loss.

Editor of Photographs, Charlotte DeArman takes hundreds of pictures, keeps a file, and then writes copy to help complete the Sequoyah.

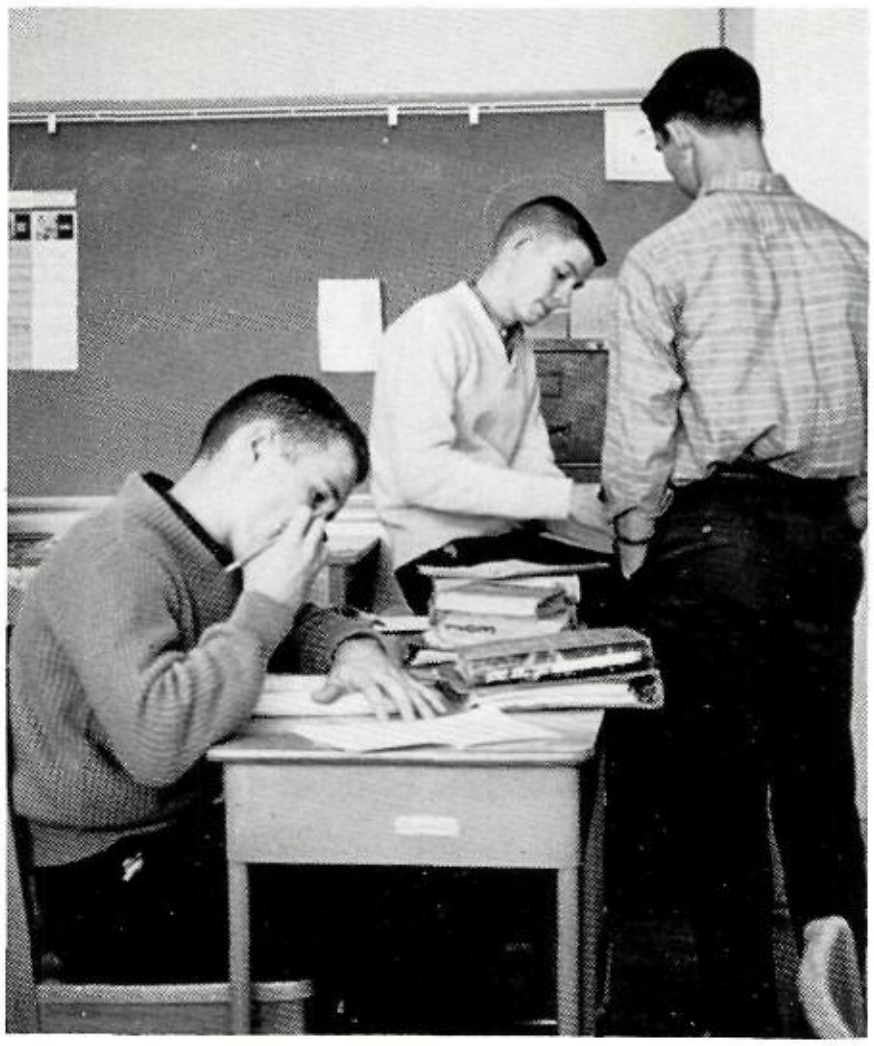
Tommy Walters, Steve McDonald, Sonny Moon, Sammy Bayliss, Rae Reynolds, and Marie Dillard help in all facets of Sequoyah work.

Charley Houston, Military Editor, works for a change in the military section.

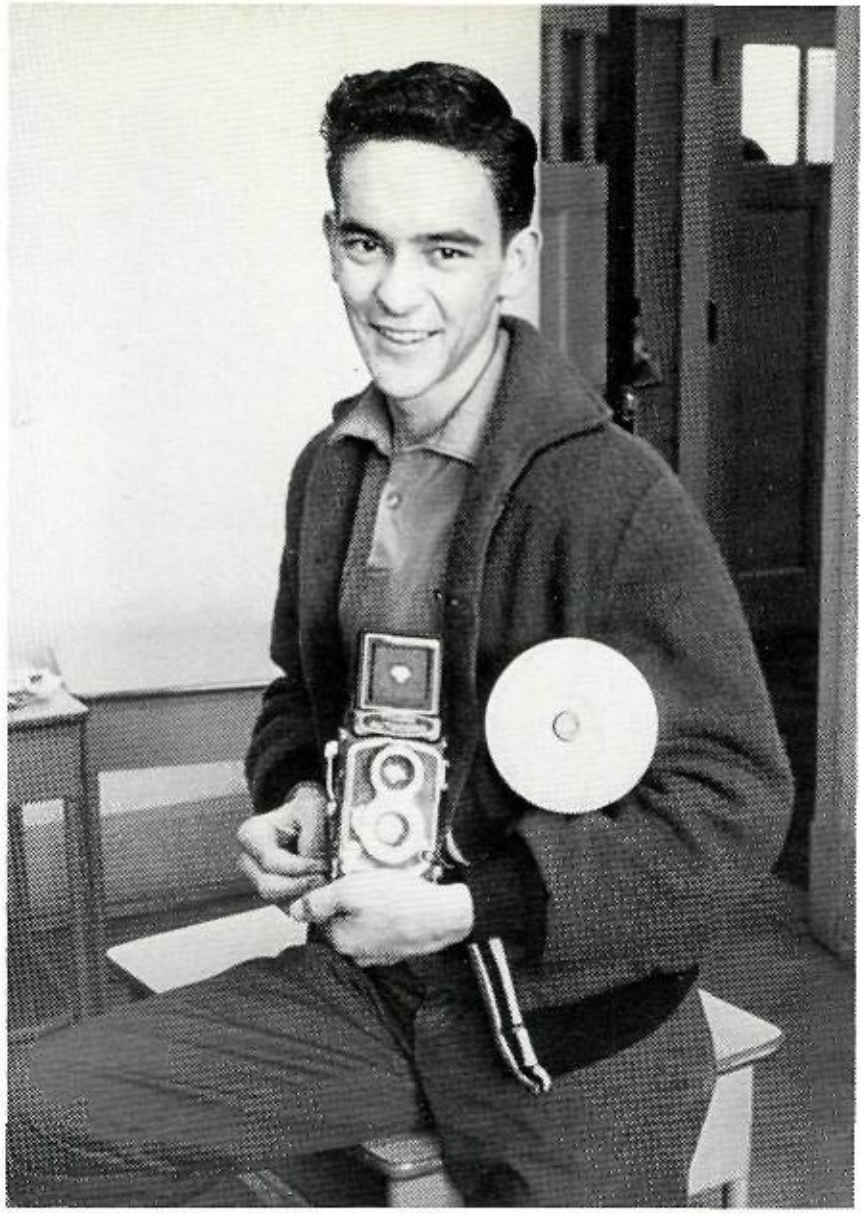
Faculty Editor, Ruth Estes, completes typing the copy for this important section.

Feature Editor, Peggy Shilub, plans layouts for beauties and favorites.

Laura Jordon, Organizations Editor, looks ahead for suggestions to improve the Sequoyah.



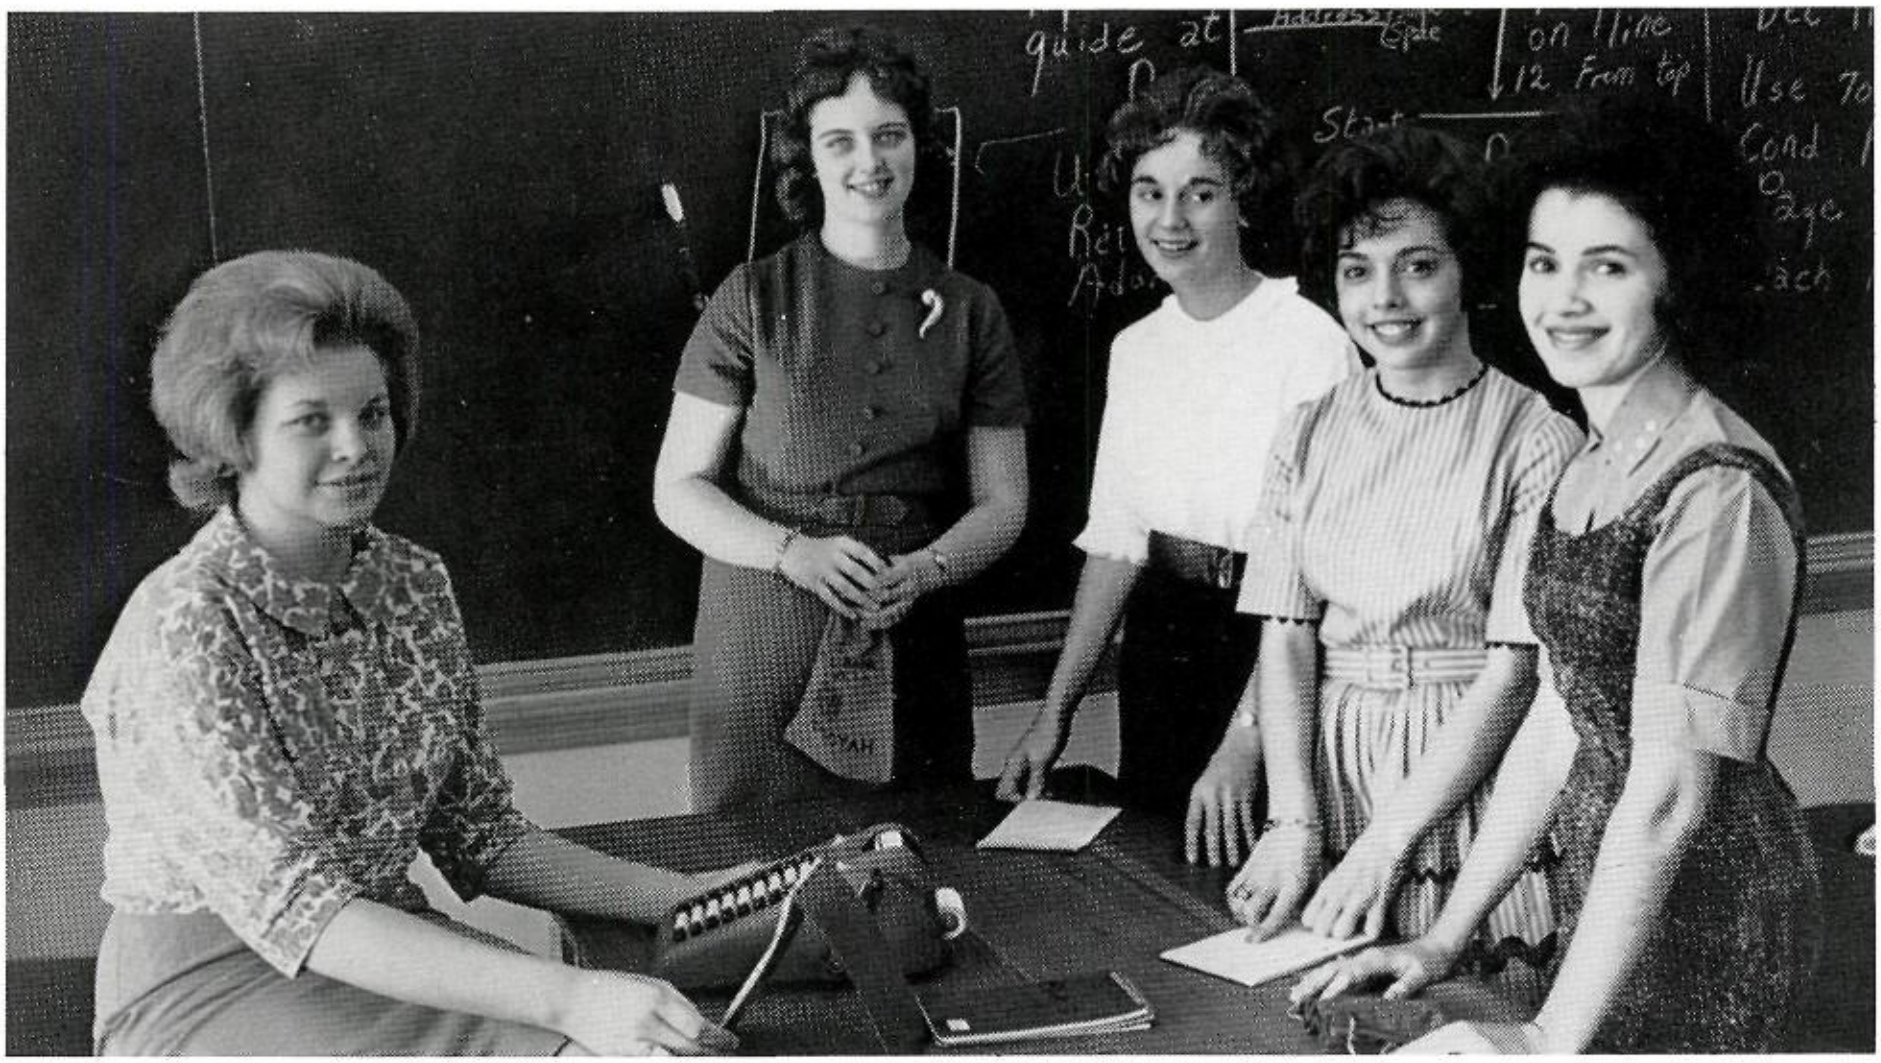
Tommy Walters, Sammy O'Donnell, and Sammy Bayliss combine their ideas in sixth period Sequoyah class.



Hershel Womack, Photographer, agrees that his service is always rewarding.

Jeanette Williams realizes that her job covers a wide area. Combing Corinne Wright's hair for her picture is only one of these extras.

Sports Editor, Sammy O'Donnell, collects statistics to make this section accurate.

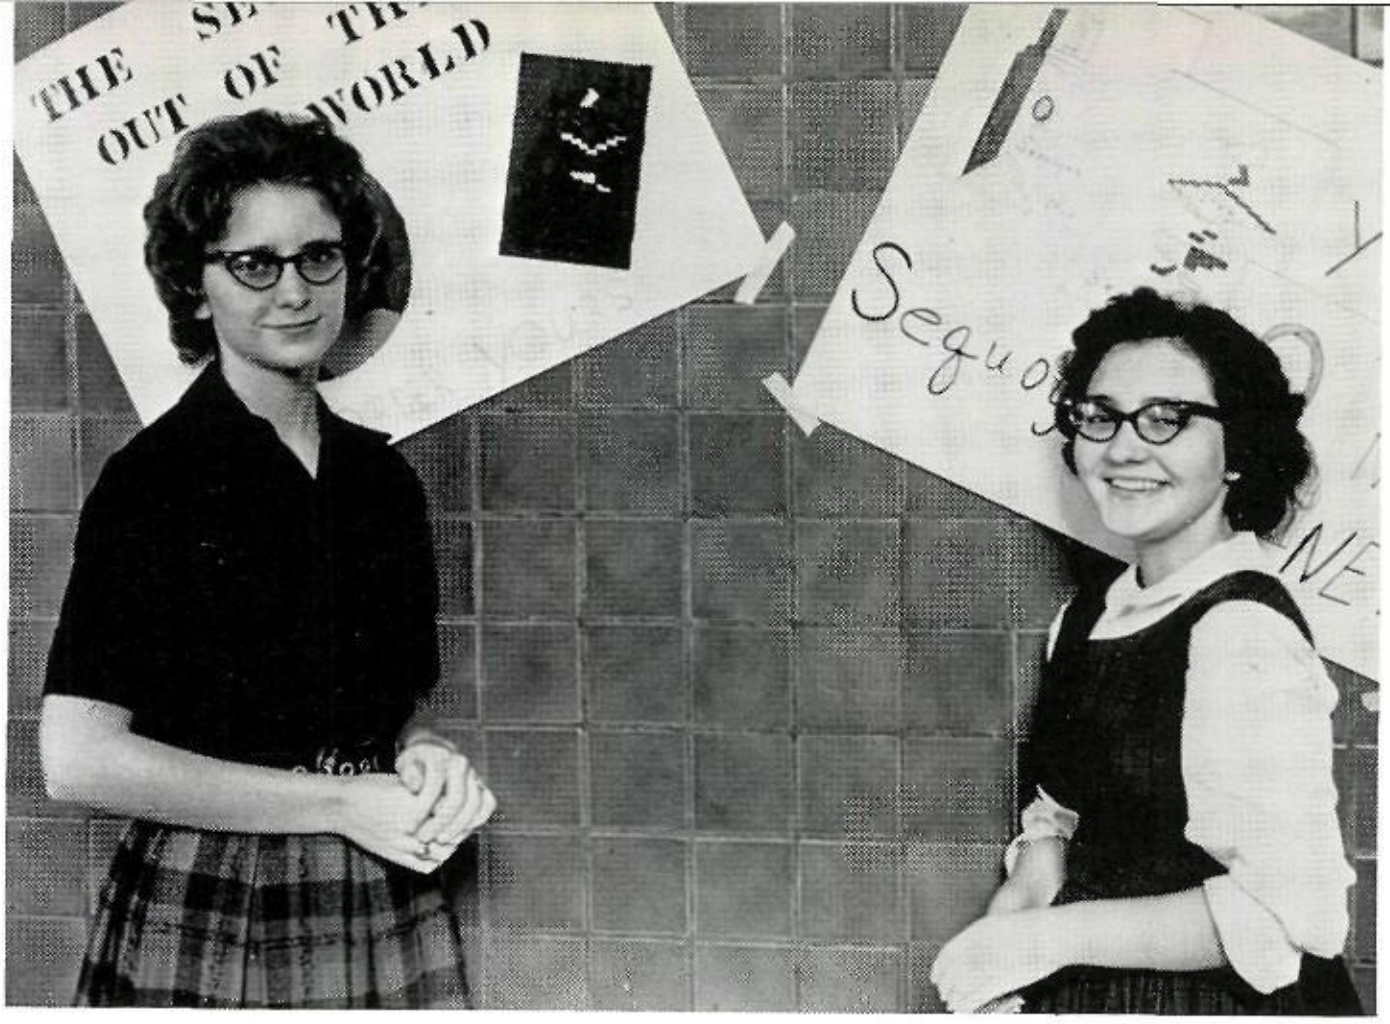


Glenda Stanley, Manager, collects receipts for the day from staff members Gayle Feibel, Janice Reyenga, Patsy Fulco, and Dianne Crain.

Circulation of Sequoyah Still High

In spite of rumors of bad economic conditions, the 1963 Sequoyah Circulation Staff maintained their usual high record of yearbook sales. Manager, Glenda Stanley, planned and promoted the staff members' busy work during the first four months of school. The tallying and balancing of collections is under the direction of Mrs. Norma Jean Brown. Valuable experience is received by all of the staff members. Determining the number of sales requires absolute accuracy and involves many hours of work.

Circulation Staff Members, Vonita Ellzey, and Jean Walton make a collection from Mr. Day.



Margo Hartwell and Shirley Head place posters in the halls to announce a sale day.

Checking receipt books are Cherie Campbell, Betty Bush, Patti Ferguson, and Jody Langdon. Not pictured: Jan Sanders.

Sandra Freeman, Cynthia Watts, and Lois Valentine make posters to remind students to buy their yearbook.

Miss Anthony, sponsor, explains to Linda Bozeman, Elaine Duckworth, Karen Merritt, and Judy Butler the correct way to make ad sales.

Kay Bacon, Dianne Neely, Lorene Jones, Brenda Delbeck, and Kay Kneipp assist each other in recording their sales.

Sequoyah Ad Staff Has Good Record

Selling advertising space to business establishments in and around Shreveport is the job of the Sequoyah Ad Staff. The nineteen girl group is headed by Sandy Hunt, manager, and Corinne Wright, co-manager. Characterized by their charm, courtesy, and initiative, the girls maintain a high balance of sales.

Early September was the date set for work to begin. Miss Mary Anthony, sponsor, chose capable, efficient girls to fill these demanding positions.

Corinne Wright, Co-Manager, and Sandy Hunt, Manager, look over last years ads to obtain ideas for ads of this year.

Examining yearbooks of back years are Sue King, Judy Andrews, Barbara Faust, and Susie Garrett.

Ready to begin another sales campaign are Sharon Friday, Vickey Drawhorn, Dianne Pharis, and Peggy Innis.

A high point of the junior year for Fair Park girls is the announcing of Football Program Ad Staff members for the coming year. Girls are selected by members of the staff and begin selling advertising space in the football program in the summer.

Participation in staff activities develops in members qualities of personality and charm, as well as leadership and efficiency. Experience gained in the selling of ads and programs helps to prepare members for jobs and further schooling after graduation.

Band and Orchestra Travel to West Virginia

The Fair Park High School band and orchestra journeyed to Charleston, West Virginia to play before the general session of the Music Educators National Conference Southern Division and the National Band Association business meeting in March. They were selected after the committee on selection had listened to audition tapes from schools throughout the twelve-state Southern Division.

Along with the band and orchestra parents' club, the two groups conducted projects to help defray the expenses of the tour. Among the projects were the annual candy sale, the sale of season membership tickets to the four concerts, a spaghetti supper, a carnival, and the sale of Fair Park note cards.

This achievement is attained through classroom discussion and debate, extensive research, and participation in various speech tournaments throughout the state. This year the Debate Club will participate in tournaments at Louisiana Tech, Ruston; Northwestern, Natchitoches; Northeast, Monroe; L.S.U., Baton Rouge; and others.

Key Club Aids Community

The Key Club, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, was organized as an aid to the community and as a means to acquaint young men with the duties of a citizen. The club began the school year with a Religious Emphasis Week. During this week the Key Club held the chapel service, urged students through posters to attend the church of their choice, and attended a church service as a block. Projects aimed toward school spirit were the poster project and sale of Beat Byrd Bags. The organization aided the community by raising money and collecting toys which were given to the Marines' Toys for Tots drive, aiding the Kiwanis Club Kettle Drive, and forming Christmas and Thanksgiving food baskets for a needy family. Spanish Week is the most important event during the year for members. During this week the whole school is given a glimpse into the Spanish world. To close this week the Spanish Club members have a party.

Another special event is a banquet at El Chico, a Mexican restaurant.

The Spanish Club has fun trying to break the piñata filled with candy and treats.

Students Assist in Library

Efficient, capable students are used to keep the library in order. These student volunteers from study halls, help in all facets of library work. Circulating library materials, assisting those who need help in the library, shelving books, filing cards, setting up displays, helping label new books, mending worn ones, and taking inventory are only a few of the duties of these helpful students.

Visual-Aids Work Performed by Students

About forty Fair Park students run film projectors for classroom teaching making learning a pleasure.

During a school year the visual aids shows about four hundred different films. Some of the most important of these films include, "Freedom Highway," a film about American history, and "Hemo, the Magnificent," a film on blood. They also play records for English classes, dictation records for business and typing classes, and language records for French and Spanish classes. Study hall teachers can also obtain various magazines from the visual aids for their classes.

The counselors' office workers welcome visitors, run errands, and file various forms.

In the principal's office the worker helps visitors, runs errands, answers the phone, and locates students.

Mrs. McDaniel's assistants answer the phone, deliver messages, and help with morning and afternoon reports.

Ruthie Powell takes advantage of a lull in office routine to study.

Students Run Store

The school store, under the direction of Mr. Martin Nutt, is a student operated business. It stocks and sells a wide variety of school supplies and is a fast, convenient place to purchase school items.

The workers for the store are girls who work during their study hall period. The girls besides learning to sell school supplies also learn the fundamentals of managing a small business.

Chemistry Club Broadens Knowledge

Students belonging to the Chemistry Club may broaden their knowledge of the scientific field and work together on many projects and activities concerning chemistry. The group enjoys various films throughout the year. Information and advice concerning a college degree in a scientific field was discussed with the group by a professor of chemistry at Centenary College. Also, projects are entered into the local science fair through the club. The winners of the local science fair may then go on to state and national competition, respectively. The highlight of the year for the club was a field trip to the chemical laboratory of United Gas Corporation.

R.O.T.C. In Review

The parades on Wednesday are the showplace of the drill a cadet learns. The purpose of drill is to teach a cadet unity, discipline, and the ability to work with others.

The way a cadet looks isn't left to luck. Work on uniform, brass, and shoes go toward appearance. Harold Brown takes a look at his uniform before an inspection.

Rifle Team Among Nation's Best

Rifle Team members demonstrate positions on the range.

Fair Park's Rifle Team has the potential to win every meet they attend. They have meets in Center, Texas, Louisiana Tech, Arlington, Texas, Huntsville, Texas, and Houston, Texas. The team, this year headed by Wade Stephenson and sponsor, Tyrette May, also participated in City League firing against the following teams; Byrd, Woodlawn, Caddo Rifle and Pistol Club, Barksdale Air Force Base, Nike Missile Base, and the Marine Reserves.

A first place finish in this league is a strong possibility. Two national meets fired in are the William Randolph Hearst Meet and the Inter-Scholastic Meet. If our team fires as well as they are capable they stand a fine chance of national ranking.

Officers' and Sponsors' Club Builds Leaders

The Officers' and Sponsors' Club was organized to promote the efficiency of the corps. Classes are given Wednesday morning on leadership and presented by Captain Trinkler, assistant P.M.S. of Shreveport. These classes deal with parades, military conduct, discipline, federal inspection, and the making of a leader. All officers and sponsors are members of the organization. Colonel, David Clemm, and sponsor, Jan Hendrick, head the club. The members attended the Officers' Reception at Barksdale in January where they met leaders of other schools.

Staff officers, Tyrette May and Larry Henson, view a Battle Group Parade.

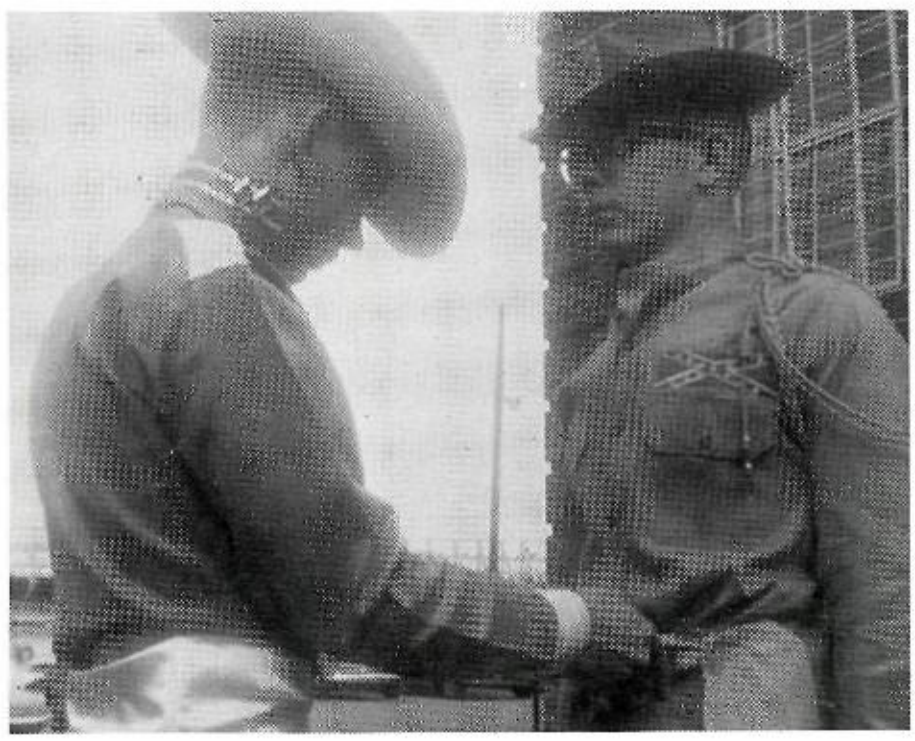
Dixie Drill Stresses Perfection

This year's Drill Platoon is one of the finest in Fair Park's history. The team this year has marched at the Bossier-Fair Park game, Homecoming, Veterans' Day Parade, East Texas Baptist College Homecoming, Holiday in Dixie, Miss Shreveport Parade, University of Houston Drill Platoon meet, and Arlington College Fourth Army meet. Added movements such as Queen Anne Salute, To the Winds, and Sequence Manual along with new sashes and slings have added new polish to the well-known platoon. Having won third place at Arlington last year the Drill Team has hopes of this year taking first, thus giving Fair Park the South's finest drill unit.

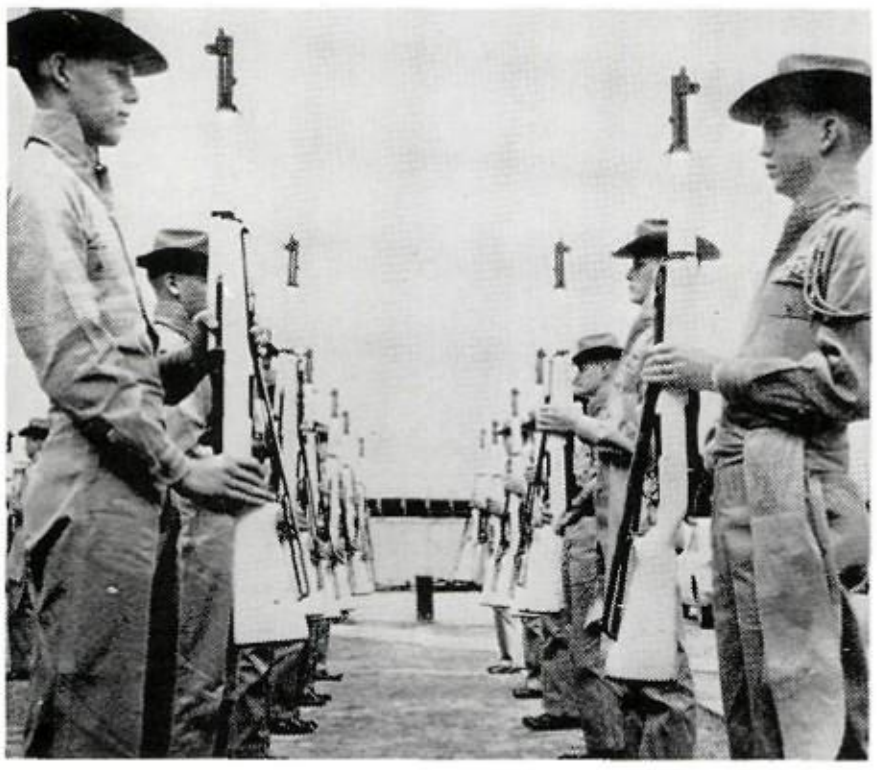
Prior to marching at a football game the Drill Platoon stands at parade rest near the end of the field.

Charley Houston, Drill Team Commander, inspects Mike Lewter. Appearance as well as drill is considered at all performances.

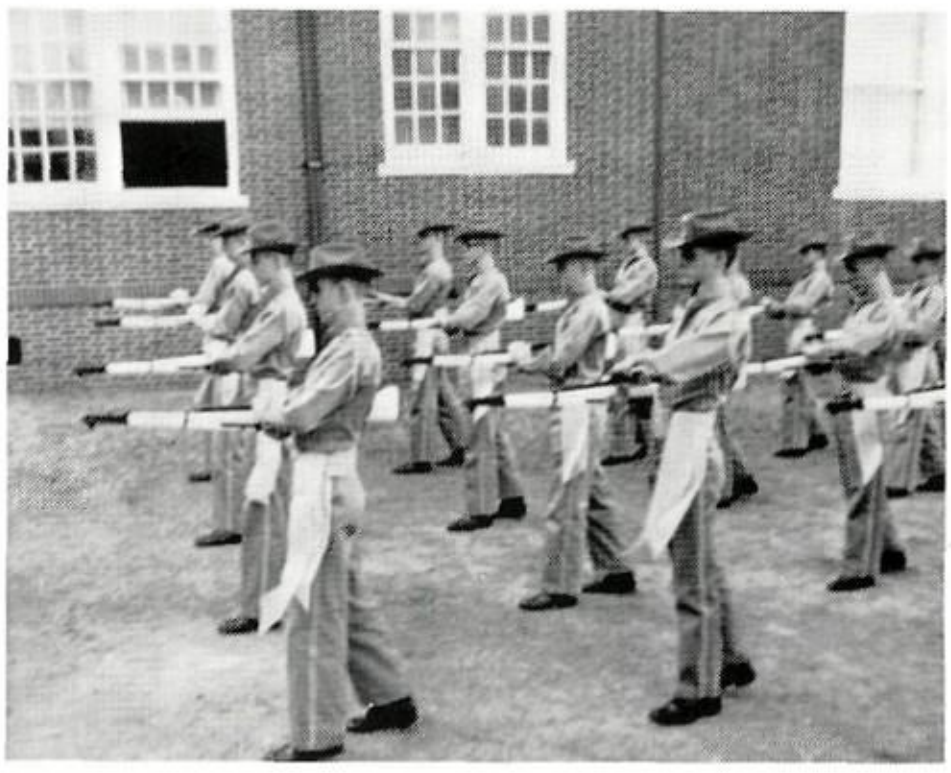


Queen Anne Salute, a new movement added to the team's bag-of-tricks, was used to good effect at Homecoming.

The squad leaders, Ricky Holland, Richard Hickman, David Clemm, and Sammy O'Donnell execute ranks kneebend.

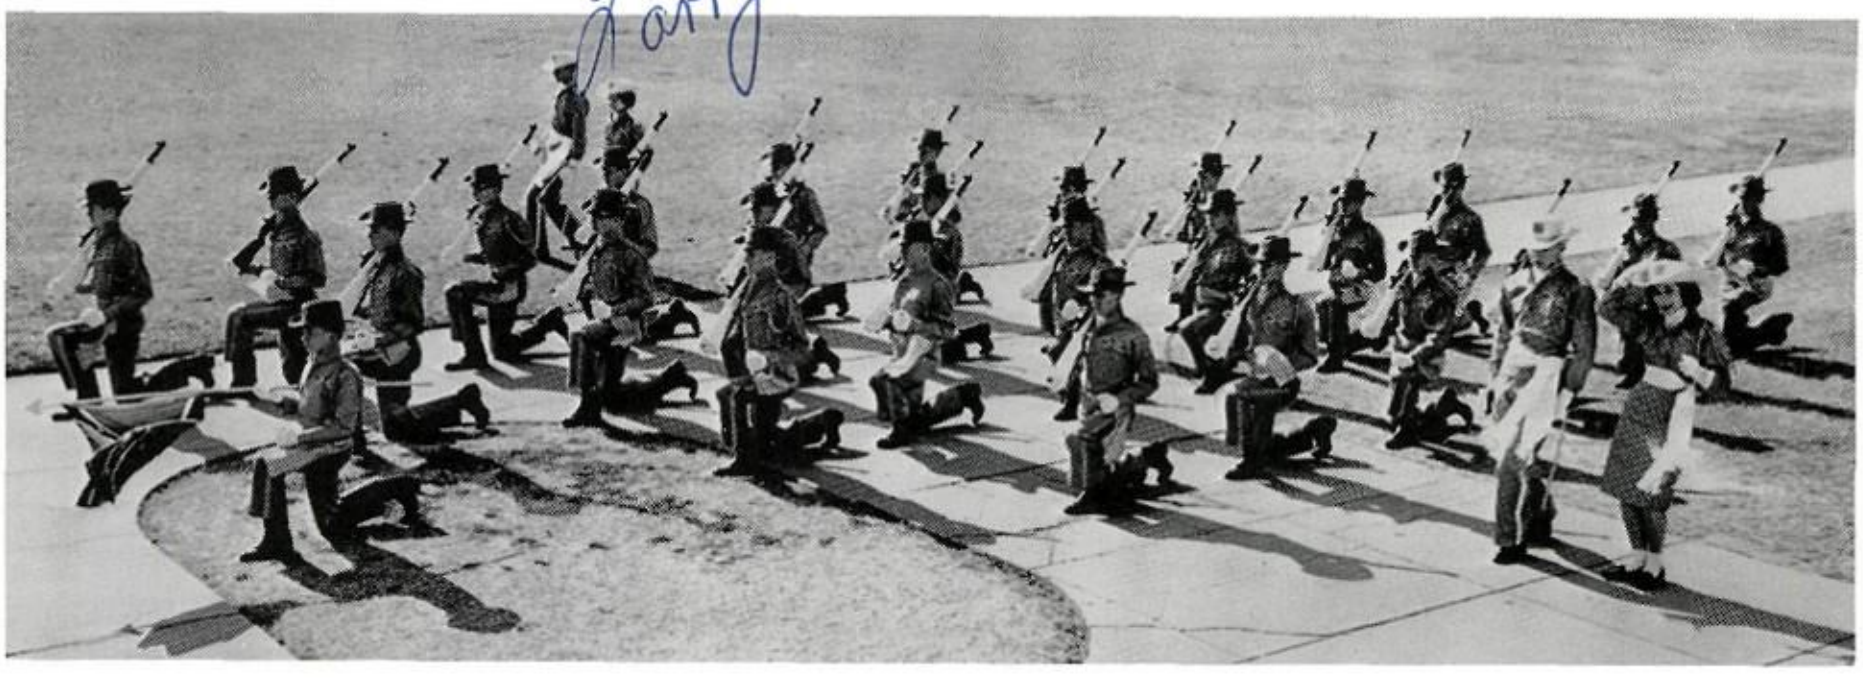


On all movements rifle dress and dress of individuals is of the utmost importance. Exchange of arms typifies such a movement.



The Drill Team makes the most of the effect of white rifles moving in unison.

Portions of the drill sequence are built around kneebend movement. The Dixie Drill Platoon is noted for its delay kneebends.



Mrs. McNeese,

It's a pretty school and a great school, and I'm proud to have been a part of it for three years. Here is the building, but the heart of the school is its faculty and students. Being in your English class this year has not only been the best learning experience of all my classes in this senior year, but it has also been the most enjoyable. I only wish I could have worked with the student council during your first period. Thanks for your friendship and Christian advice and influence upon my life in these three years.

A senior student and friend,
Dave Worthington

Mrs McNeese

It has been a real pleasure having you as my English teacher this year. Best of luck in your classes next year and in the years to come. May God richly bless you.

Mrs. McNeese—

How can I ever begin to express to you my feelings of appreciation and admiration. Appreciation for teaching me responsibility (some, anyway!) and admiration for your being such a wonderful person, both as a teacher and as a friend.

Love,
Leilani Lang

Mrs. Mc Neese,

I have enjoyed being in your 6th period English Class this year. You are a fine teacher and very considerate. Just remember me by my ~~shorts~~ socks that I wore.

In Memoriam

Editor's Message

"Mrs. McNeese"

This is one of your old pupil from long ago, and I wanted like to say that I can still remember you were my first Cybil teacher at Fair Park and I'll never forget that, I would like to wish you all the luck in the years to come for I know that you will read it if your student are like me. The Best of luck.

Andre Taylor
Sr.

The Sequoyah Editorial Staff has worked long, trying hours in the struggle to give the students at Fair Park the biggest and best annual ever. To present an accurate record of the student's life at Fair Park, we have made several changes in the book itself. We have attempted to contrast our present book with the book of the past.

Without a great many friends and an abundance of help, there would be no yearbook. I wish to thank personally Milburne Studios for their valuable time. Thanks to the people of Taylor Publishing Company who have given their helpful and friendly advice.

My personal gratitude goes to Miss Sammie Banks for not only coaching me but also for her friendship and trust. The greatest "Thank you" goes to the incomparable staff, who are the 1963 Sequoyah. To my fellow editors, Jill Gates, Jo Carol Ward, Charlotte DeArman, Laura Jordon, Peggy Shilub, Ruth Estes, Charley Houston, and Sammy O'Donnell, I extend my continued thanks for their support and friendship. Also I wish to thank the other members of the staff, Rae Reynolds, Tommy Walters, Marie Dillard, Sonny Moon, Steve McDonald, and Sammy Bayliss, whose only pay, just as the editors', is the fulfillment and satisfaction that comes with seeing the product live for years to come—a record of high school life, dreams, and hopes.

The Sequoyah publishing year is over, but the fun and friendship will linger with our product, the 1963 Sequoyah.

Dear Mrs. McNeese,

There are actually tears in my eyes as I write this. I remember the first of school when you said you had only two main ambitions. The first was to be a good teacher and the second was to be a good wife and mother. Because you are so sweet and understanding and so much fun I know you must be a wonderful wife and mother.

As far as the teaching part goes, let me say that I have never had a better teacher. I have learned so much in here. You made me want to work and you made each class interesting and gay. I think you are the epitomy of what a teacher should be and I hope that when I am a teacher I will be just like you. You have a zest for living and seem to take the best from those you come in contact with. You are a fine Christian and let me say, I love you very much. I'll never forget you, ever!

Love always,
Jamie Bezucha

Mrs. McNeese,

I have sincerely enjoyed attending your class more than any other. My grades haven't been of the highest, but I say sincerely, "I have learned from you; you have taught me to the best of your ability."

Maybe you've been disappointed in me; but honestly, I'm not always sure exactly what's happening. [and fancy that: me aspiring to be a professional writer.] But writing is self-teaching.

Of all the teachers, and people, I know, you're the most charming, as well as the loveliest and vivacious.

David W. House

Mrs. Mc Neese,
I have had a wonderful time in 6th period. I enjoyed learning about Macbeth. I guess Act 5 was my favorite because it was the only Act I understood. I'm glad I made it through your class. Thanks for making my senior year great!
Paula Bowlin

Mrs. Mc Neese,
I can truly say that you have instilled in me knowledge which will be helpful to me in college. Although at times we had disagreements and didn't quite see eye to eye, I really enjoyed being in your class. I hope and when my little brother comes to Fair Park (if he gets that far) that he will have you for English. May God bless you and yours and be with you always.
Love (cum amore magna)
PeeWee

Mrs. McNeese,
You're class has been most inspiring to me this year. I really needed a teacher who made me think and you succeeded in doing it. I know I'm going to be grateful to you for all you've done for me - especially next fall at college.
Thank you again for your kindness and excellent teaching.
Bonnie Hill

Mrs. McNeese,

You can't imagine how much I have enjoyed being in your class. Even though I didn't always learn quite as much as you would have liked me too I thought I didn't understand all that you thought I should. I hope we aren't too bad of enemies. When graduation night comes, there will be a tear or two in my eyes. But you can think of how you helped put me there.

I am sure the classes following me will be as crazy about you as I am.

Love
Betty Scott

Mrs. McNeese,

How can I ever tell you how much this year has meant to me. You and you alone kept me going for it was terribly hard being seperated from Jerry. You added to my everyday and I shall always be indebted to you. I'll always cherish our friendship and it will always live in my heart.

You are the greatest person I know and if I become half the person you are, I will be satisfied.

You were and are the best teacher I've had — you make me think.

Thanks again for a wonderful year in Student Council and as a friend.

God bless you!

Love,
Anne

Mrs. Mack (Hard)

This my "SENIOR" year has been wonderful! I have memories I shall never forget — memories of Student Council — I think I'll cry! I had such a marvelous time — Have a teacher to be proud of. You have been a friend, as well as a teacher. I'll treasure these days as long as I live. I'll always remember the Student Council and how you helped us do it. Thank you for everything.

Love Always,

Mrs. McNeese,

I have enjoyed this year in English even though it did not look like it sometimes. You're a real sweet person with lots of patience. I can never thank you for everything you have done for me.

Love and Prayers,
Sherry Dickerson

Dear Mrs. McNeese,

I'm sorry I wasn't always a good student. I know I could have been a better teacher if I had tried. I'm sorry for all the trouble I've caused you. I'll be glad when this year is over. But it was fun. Thanks for all the sweet notes.
